EARTHQUAKE SURVIVORS FEAR RUINS

And Prefer to Brave The Cold and Suffering In the Open

RATHER THAN TO RE-ENTER THEIR OLD HOMES.

ANOTHER SHOCK IS FELT

In the Southwest of Italy, But So Far As Known There Were No Lives Lost —Food Supplies Are Insufficient and Shelter is Inadequate.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Rome, Jan. 19.—An earthquake of great force has shaken all Calabria in the southwestern part of Italy but so far as is known, has caused no loss of life. The shock appears to have been most severe in the neighborhood of Cosenza, capital of the province.

It frightened thousands of persons and drove them into the open, where they insist on staying. They prefer to risk the cold and its consequent sufferings rather than run the chance of being buried in the ruins of their homes.

Throughout the earthquake belt in Central Italy even in towns where many of the buildings are still standing apparently intact, the survivors of the catastrophe refuse to seek shelter in their houses and are gathered in the open, suffering terribly from exposure.

As relief and rescue work goes forward, it appears that some districts just south of Avezzano were as badly afflicted as that town, with the percentage of dead to the total population almost as large. The situation in the case of many towns and villages is most desperate because as yet adequate relief measures have not been taken, and the number of persons working in the ruins is very small.

Ortucchio, southwest of Avezzano, is reported as having at least 2,000 victims, fully half of whom have been found buried in the ruins of the cathedrals there.

The town has been virtually razed and now more than six days after the first shock, sanitary conditions among the living are becoming almost unbearable.

The same story comes from other towns in the vicinity—from San Bendetto, with 4,000 of its 4,500 population dead; Celano, 2500 feet up in the mountains with 1,000 dead; Paterno, with but 200 of its 2,000 persons still alive; Pescino, with 4,000 and more buried and many other towns.

Though many of these places are but a short distance from Avezzano, the supposed center of the disturbances and the consequent relief work they have been almost entirely inaccessible because of blockaded and ruined roads. The food sup-

WILSON POWERLESS TO PUT AN EMBARGO ON EXPORTING FOOD.

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Washington, Jan. 19.—President Wilson has no authority to declare an embargo on the exportation of wheat and other foodstuffs he told callers today discussing recent increases in food prices in the U. S. Such authority must come from congress, he said, adding that he had not investigated the constitutionality of such a step. He did not commit himself on the advisability of an embargo act.

The president said nothing could be done by the government toward regulating prices unless illegal practices by merchants were disclosed by the investigation he has directed the attorney general to begin.

INTIMIDATION OF JUDGES IN APPOINTMENT

REFERRED TO BY SUPERIOR COURT OF CINCINNATI, AS TRUSTEE IS NAMED

For Southern Railroad and Ex-Mayor Hunt Got the Place in Spite of Threats.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Cincinnati, Jan. 19.—Former Mayor Henry T. Hunt was appointed today as a trustee of the Southern Railroad by the superior court of this city. Mr. Hunt succeeeds the late Joseph T. Carew.

With the appointment came an unusual announcement from the three superior court judges. The court's statement follows:

"Shortly after it became known that a vacancy existed upon this board of trustees, a message was brought to us that, unless we appointed a gentleman whose name had been suggested, certain powerful influences would be directed toward procuring the passage at the present session of the general assembly of an act abolishing this court. We promptly struck this gentleman's name from the list of possible appointees. More recently we have been informed, through perfectly reliable sources, that if we did appoint the gentleman whose name we are about to make public, potent forces would be brought to bear upon the general assembly not only to abolish this court, but also to wipe out the board of trustees itself.

"Thus we were given to understand that the security of our positions upon the bench was to depend upon our subservience to the demands of those who desired either to procure the appointment of a favorite or to prevent the appointment of one whom they opposed. But we have positively refused to purchase a longer tenure of office at the price of our independence and self-respect. If we are to be legislated out of existence, we shall have the satisfaction of knowing that we have maintained, in this respect, at least, the high traditions of this court."

The name of the man referred to was not made public.

Marion Bradshay of Shawnee failed to appear to contest the seating of Representative Hite of Perry County last night. The committee voted to recommend the seating of Hite.

VILLA WILL NOT ENTER MEXICO NOW

His Stop at Quertario May Indicate Failure To Co-operate

WITH THE FORCES OF REBEL GENERAL ZAPATA.

THE CAPITAL IS MENACED

Other Reports Said That Villa Had Already Arrived at Mexico City, But American State Department Officials Deny Any Confirmation of These.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Jan. 19.—Dispatches filed yesterday at Mexico City said that while it was reported General Villa with a large force was coming to the capital, reliable information indicated he would not move further south than Quertario. Agents of the American government in the Mexican capital said they were at a loss to understand the new phases of the situation or predict the outcome.

One message ventured the suggestion that Villa's stop at Quertario might mean that he finds himself unable to co-operate further with the Zapata forces.

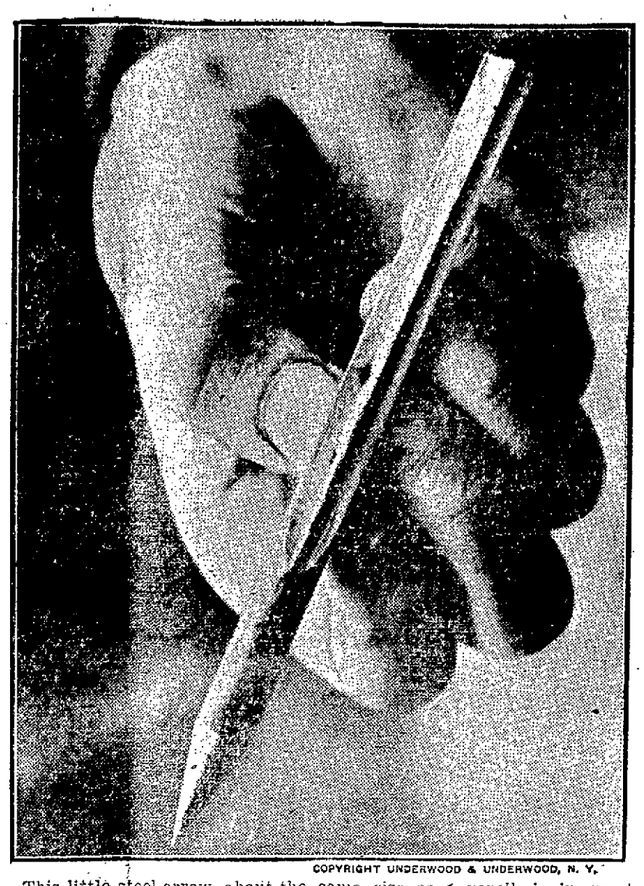

All day yesterday officials of the department set up by the convention government were packing their records, preparatory to going north, either to Torreon of Chihuahua. An indication of the lack of harmony was the publication of an interview in the Mexican newspapers by General Palafox, a Zapata leader, denouncing the convention troops for occupying Orizaba, which it is believed, previously was garrisoned by Zapata troops.

The advance from Puebla of the forces of General Obregon, a Carranza chief, and the sudden departure of General Gutierrez from Mexico City with five thousand men has proven a menace to the capital. In many quarters here the belief prevails that Villa plans to evacuate Mexico City and strengthen his lines north of the capital, making an effort to obtain complete influence over all the northern states before turning his attention to the capital and the south.

WILLIS APPOINTS MIAMI TRUSTEES

Columbus, Jan. 19.—Governor Willis today named twelve trustees of Miami University. New members of the board appointed are: Charles L. Swain, Cincinnati; E. G. Burkam, Dayton, and William S. Giffen, Butler county. Those re-appointed are: H. A. Herman, Montgomery county; J. M. Williams, Hamilton; Darrell Joyce, Butler; C. V. Parrish, Butler; Horace A. Irvin, Montgomery; Elam Fisher, Preble; J. G. Welsh, Butler; Otis Fisk, Hamilton, and William A. Graham, Shelby.

New Deadly Weapon Used By French Aviators.

COPYRIGHT UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

This little steel arrow, about the same size as a pencil, is in great favor with the French aviators. The Flechette, as it is called, when dropped from a height of 3000 feet, will penetrate a man from his helmet to his foot. Members of the French aviation corps have also been experimenting with this arrow for use against dirigibles. Because of the easier manoeuvering and greater speed of the aeroplane it can readily soar over the dirigible and drop these "Flechettes" on the gas bag and probably explode the enemy's craft.

Strikers and Deputies In Pitched Battle With Fatal Results to Four

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Roosevelt, N. J., Jan. 19.—Fourteen men were shot, four of them being mortally wounded, in a pitched battle between 250 striking laborers and 50 deputy sheriffs at the plant of The American Agricultural Chemical company, here today.

The fight occurred when the strikers stopped a Central Railroad of New Jersey train from Elizabethport, to see if the train brought strike-breakers to the plant. There were no strike-breakers aboard, but a few office employes who were passengers started an outcry, apparently believing that the strikers intended harm to them.

In answer to the call, 50 deputy sheriffs, armed with rifles and revolvers, ran to the scene from the company's plant, where they had been stationed for the past two weeks. A general encounter between the deputies and the strikers followed.

At first only stones were used. Then someone fired a shot. This was the signal for a fusillade which came apparently from both sides. None of the deputies was injured, but many of the strikers fell. Most of the wounded men were shot through the legs, as the deputies fired low. The strikers dispersed; some of them carrying the wounded men away.

The four most seriously wounded were taken to a hospital at Elizabeth, not far away. It was said that these men probably would die.

The office employes were escorted from the train to the plant by the deputies without further incident.

According to the strike leaders the total casualties were 19 and one of the wounded, Michael Backy, died on the way to a hospital. At the two principal hospitals in Elizabeth, one of which received 12 of the injured men and the other two, it was said that one man was in a critical condition but that none had died. The wounded men, most of whom were foreigners, were suffering both from buckshot wounds and bullets.

W. E. Florence, county prosecutor, announced that he would hold a hearing this afternoon to investigate the shooting.

PRESIDENT THINKS WAR WILL NOT END DURING COMING SPRING.

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Washington, Jan. 19.—President Wilson sees no likelihood of the termination of the European war this spring. He told callers today he had not noticed any indications of peace in the situation yet.

Mr. Wilson mentioned the subject in connection with his plans for a trip through the Panama canal and to the San Francisco exposition. He added that the trip to Panama was dependent upon domestic and foreign conditions because "practically all the governments would be at sea." He smiled at his own remark and added that he meant "literally at sea."

U. S. CONSUL IS REFUSED RECOGNITION

AT ENGLISH CITY, BECAUSE OF PRO-GERMAN SENTIMENTS EXPRESSED

In Letters Written by Him While in Diplomatic Service at Colburg, Germany.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Nottingham, England (via London), Jan. 19.—On account of letters written by him and published in a newspaper at Lincoln, Neb., John L. Cutright, newly-accredited American vice consul at Nottingham, did not take up the duties for which he came to this city, but returned to London. Mr. Cutright departed from Nottingham after he had been informed by the mayor and other city officials that he would not be acceptable as vice consul because his newspaper letters were regarded as expressive of pro-German sentiments.

Before coming to Nottingham, Mr. Cutright served as American vice consul at Coburg, Germany. While there he wrote the letters to which the Nottingham officials took exception.

Mr. Cutright is a son of John Cutright, editor of the Lincoln Star, and formerly private secretary of William J. Bryan. The son, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, had been in the consular service only a few months.

NO STATEMENT AT FOREIGN OFFICES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Jan. 19.—The British foreign office has no information concerning objections on the part of Nottingham officials to the assumption by Mr. Cutright of his duties at the American consulate. The American embassy would make no statement concerning the case, further than to say that if Mr. Cutright was not acceptable to the Nottingham authorities, he probably would be sent elsewhere.

Mr. Cutright is still in London, and expects to return shortly to America.

Arthur Irwin, who has been a patient in a Columbus hospital for several weeks, returned to Newark Monday. The Bazler & Bradley ambulance removed him from a B. & O. train to his home, 176 North Fourth street.

HUNGARY IS REPORTED TO WANT PEACE

On Any Terms Rather Than Submit to a Russian Invasion

WHICH IS DAILY BECOMING MORE IMMINENT.

HEAVY REINFORCEMENTS

Are Being Rushed Forward By Both Germans and Allies, and Artillery of Latter is In Action, Portending a Battle for Possession of Ypres.

ter is In Action, Please, Translate a Battle for Possession of Ypres.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Jan. 19.—Though both the British and French press continue to discuss the probability of a fresh German attempt to break through the French line barring the way to Paris, the Germans so far have failed to follow up their success in the region of Soissons. The German troops are remaining more or less inactive beyond the river Aisne, and the only activity shown in this vicinity in the last 24 hours has been the bombardment of St. Paul. No one believes, however, that the fighting at Soissons is over. Both sides apparently are bringing up reinforcements, and some stiff encounters soon should develop.

The capture of several German field works on the east bank of the Meuse river, which, according to the French official statement were taken by assault, is about the only change in the western war theatre.

There also has been no change to speak of in the eastern arena barring some Russian gains on the central Poland frontier and reported crushing of the Turkish army which tried to make a stand at Kara Urgan.

The Russians claim to have obtained a good foothold in Transylvania but they have not yet invaded that country in force. As the Russian menace to Hungary becomes more of a reality, reports that Hungary is seeking a separate peace are being revived in London. None of these reports can be confirmed, but they insist that Hungary is willing to make any sacrifices rather than submit to an invasion.

The new Austro-German offensive against Servia has not materialized thus far, but reports persist that Austrian forces are being concentrated on the Servian frontier and that an offensive movement is imminent. The Servians, in the meantime, are said to be preparing strong entrenchments.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McHenry, of 122 Wilson street, underwent a minor operation at the office of Dr. Essington Monday afternoon. The Bazler & Bradley ambulance removed her to her home.

Locomotive Engineers Better Paid Than the Governors of Seven States, Says I. M. Sheean

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Governors of seven states of the union could make more money sitting in the cab of a locomotive on some of the runs of western railways than they now receive in the executive chairs of their respective states.

This statement was made here today by James M. Sheean, attorney for the western railroads, whose engineers, firemen, and hostlers are demanding higher wages and better hours, in outlining the railroad side of the case to the board of arbitration. Presentation of evidence for the men began November 30, 1914, and was completed today, after which Sheean made his remarks.

Sheean went on to say that the annual salaries of these governors are smaller than the wages received by some of the locomotive engineers of western railroads who ask wage-increases which, Sheean said, would amount to $40,000,000 a year.

"Of the 5000 men whose wages for the entire year to June 30, 1913, will be shown," Sheean continued, "there is a maximum of $3,725.20 for passenger engineers; $3,342.30 for freight engineers; $1,752.20 for passenger firemen, and $1,890.32 for freight firemen. Against these maximum the governors of seven states receive $3000 a year or less, while those of seven other states receive $4000, or only slightly above the engineers miximum earnings.

"Actual earning statements for all engineers and firemen for the month in which these demands were presented show that engineers in passenger service earned actually an average of $185 for the month, with a maximum actual earning of $341; in the freight service the average was $170, with the actual maximum of $358, the firemen in passenger service that month earned an average of $115, a maximum of $210, while in freight service their actual earnings for the month were on the average of $110, with a maximum of $221. Other firemen in combination freight and passenger service earned even higher wages.

"A careful investigation of the increased cost of living in the west shows that prices have not advanced so fast as have the wages of engineers and firemen under the schedules awarded in 1910.

"Comparison of their wages with those of any other craft, or of any other railway employes, or of engineers and firemen in other parts of the country, show that they are already receiving a higher compensation in both rates of pay and miles."

Touching the question of ability of the roads to meet the added cost in these latest demands of the men, Sheean pointed out that in the face of larger mileage and growing traffice, the western roads in recent years have experienced immense losses in net revenues, income, dividends and surplus, in which situation they are now faced by demands of en-

One Man Killed and Several Hurt When Scaffold Collapsed Today At American Bottle Co.'s Plant

The collapse of a scaffold at the plant of The American Bottle company, shortly after 1 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, caused the death of J. H. Gildow, foreman, and the injury of Sam Beck, a foreigner. Four other men who were on the scaffold sustained slight bruises and escaped more serious injuries through great good fortune.

The cause of the collapse of the scaffold could not be ascertained. It was being used in the repair work on one of the furnaces and the six men were working on the elevated platform when it crashed to the floor without warning.

Gildow was caught under the falling timbers and materials used in the repair work and frightly crushed. A hurry call was sent for the Bazler & Bradley ambulance, and instructions given to dispatch other ambulances to the scene. Criss Bros. were notified to hurry their ambulance to the factory.

The Bazler & Bradley motor car made a fast run from the factory to the sanitarium with Gildow but the man expired as he was being carried into the West ... street institution.

An examination of the body revealed the fact that his left leg was crushed off. His death probably was due to hemorrhage. There were other injuries about the body.

Criss Bros'. ambulance removed Sam Beck and another foreigner to the city hospital. Beck suffered a fractured collar bone and a number of minor injuries. The other man, who was not able to make himself understood, received a scalp wound, which is not regarded as serious.

At the office of the American Bottle company, Superintendent C. F. Payton refused to make any statement regarding the accident, saying that he had not seen the accident and had received no information regarding it.

GERMANS REPORT REPULSE OF THE RUSSIAN ARMIES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Jan. 19.—(By Wireless to London.)—The German official statement given out in Berlin today says:

"In the western theatre except for a few unimportant skirmishes only artillery duels took place along the entire front.

RUSSIAN SHIPS SINK TURKISH IN SINOPE BAY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Selastopo (via Petrograd), Jan. 19.—A detachement of Russian torpedo boats have entered the bay of Sinope, a Turkish port on the Black Sea in Asia Minor, and have sent to the bottom a Turkish steamer and three sailing vessels. The crews of the four ships were saved.

The name of the steamer appears to have been the Meorges.

No date of this engagement is given. The news is trustworthy.

Lack of Food for Rescuers At Work In Southern District, Where Loss Exceeds Avezzano

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Tagliacozzo, Via Rome, Jan. 19.—Not less acute than the misery and suffering of the people of Avezzano is that of the inhabitants of the entire district of the south, in Pescina, San Benedetto, Gioji De Marsi and other towns. The loss of life and damage to property in these places is equally as great but the needs of the sufferers have received far less attention.

Soldiers have arrived at several of these places to aid in the work of rescue but there is a lamentable scarcity of food for both troops and the people. The temporary shelters provided are also inadequate to protect the people from the increasingly cold weather.

Paterno high upon the mountainside, has suffered probably more than any other town in the whole earthquake region. Less than 200 persons have been saved out of a population of 2,000 and not a single house remains standing. All are shapeless ruins.

Along the main road from Paterno to Pescina, traffic has ceased, except for a few motor cars carrying supplies and some country carts which, when encountered were generally laden with two or more coffins.

The flourishing town of Pescina is a mass of ruins from which there is already distinctly perceptible a faint sickening odor of dead bodies. More than 4000 of the people of Pescina are buried under the fallen buildings. Some of the corpses which have been recovered lie on the ground at street corners while others are hastily enclosed in coffins made of the first wood obtainable.

Although living persons are still being dug out of the ruins there are only 150 soldiers at Pescina to assist the survivors in rescue work. The few surviving town officials complain bitterly of the government's neglect. They say no bread has been obtainable since Saturday and that the people and soldiers have had nothing to eat but vegetables brought from neighboring villages.

Pescina lost its most famous landmark, the sixteenth century castle of the Piccolomini family, and the house where the famous cardinal Mazarin was born.

The condition of the surviving population at the town of San Benedett near Pescina is deplorable. Over 1,000 of the inhabitants perished out of a total population of 4,500.

The town of Celano, northeast of Avezzano and 2,500 feet up in the mountains, lost 1,000 dead through the earthquake. There are also many injured and 10,000 persons are without shelter. A majority of them have been compelled to pass the bitterly cold nights in the open air.

Another severe earthquake was experienced at 6 o'clock Monday morning and the people as a consequence are afraid to take shelter near buildings that are still standing.

GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY SAVES TWO CHILDREN IN ONE FAMILY

About one year ago two of my children suffered badly from weak kidneys. They would have severe spells of dizziness and were all run down in health. I was just about discouraged. I tried several remedies and finally a doctor, but they did not seem to improve. I knew of a friend who was taking Swamp-Root for kidney trouble with good results and I decided to get some for the children. I had noticed that there was some improvement after they had taken two large bottles and continued to give it to them until they had taken one-half dozen bottles and were well on the road to recovery. I think Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has done more for my children than any other medicine I have tried and recommend it to anyone having children that suffer as mine did.

Very truly yours,
R. W. LISENBY,
Dotham, Ala.

Personally appeared before me, this 2nd day of July, 1909, R. W. Lisenby, who subscribed to the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and fact.

gineers and firemen which, he said, would add $40,000,000 to their expenses.

An exhibit of 326 pages, two feet in length and nearly as wide ponderously inaugurated today presentation of testimony for the railroads in the western wage arbitration. The last direct testimony for the men was recorded yesterday and James M. Sheean outlined the case for the railroads.

Today's bulky volume, entitled "Exhibit One," was placed in evidence by the first witness, D. H. Bremerman of the staff of the vice president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. It analyzed, from the railroad viewpoint, the 16 demands made by the 64,000 engineers and firemen of ninety-eight western railroads. Bremerman had no comment to make on the right or wrong of the demands, but showed where they departed from precedent.

"TIZ" FOR SORE, TIRED FEET--AH!

"TIZ" is grand for aching swollen, sweaty, calloused feet or corns.

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet: no more swollen; bad smelling sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.

No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ." "TIZ is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "TIZ" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns callouses or bunions.

Get a 25 cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "TIZ." Get a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents. Think of it.

Assessment Ordinances Passed, Annual Reports Are Received By Council In a Long Session

Assessment ordinances, reports of city officials and discussions of the light plant and proposed building and electrical codes consumed two hours time of city councilmen last night after the members finally settled down to business at 8:10 o'clock.

A caucus of an hour's duration preceded the meeting. An effort made several months ago to get council back on schedule has failed. President Keller caused the adoption of a resolution requiring all ordinances and resolutions to be submitted to the clerk not later than 6:30 o'clock on the night of the meeting. It was hoped that this would enable council to go into session at 7:30 o'clock. Not a meeting in the last six months has started on time.

The council chamber was well filled with citizens interested in proposed legislation. A committee representing the grocers and meat dealers of the city was present to see what action would be taken on the petition submitted at the last meeting asking for a more stringent peddler's license law. City officials were present and occupied seats with council.

The public service committee reported that the only work available for relief of unemployed was the Charles and Clarendon street sewer jobs which can be started as soon as weather permits. The committee also recommended the employment of an electrical expert to determine the cost of proposed improvements to the light plant. The report was received and filed. The law committee reported on the petition asking for a more stringent hawkers' or peddlers' license ordinance, recommending amendments to the present ordinance requiring tags bearing license numbers. The solicitor was instructed to draw up the amendment ordinance.

Auditor Dodd reported that the State Liability Board of Awards had rejected the offer of the $240,000 subway bond issue. He also reported that the sinking fund trustees had also rejected the bonds. Another report advised council that the city auditor had advertised for bids for the deposit of city funds, the bids to be received up to noon February 10. The reports were received and filed.

Service Director Christian submitted a report on the operation of the city light plant, showing that the cost per lamp during the year 1914 was $33.20. The director also reported receipts and expenditures at Cedar Hill cemetery showing a balance of $16,426.52 on hand January 1, 1915.

Three reports for the cemetery, light plant and water works, were submitted.

The interest on notes is the receipts for six months only, the balance of the year not having been paid in. At the beginning of the year I had invested $2,000.00 in water works bonds, of which $1,000.00 became due in March last. Under authority of law I directed the city treasurer to invest the funds in more profitable securities, and invested in the 6 per cent notes of the city school board and the city of Newark assessment issues. The total investments at present, $15,500.00.

Council Clerk Woodward reported service of notice of paving ordinance on the B. and O. railroad company.

A petition from eleven Clinton street property owners was referred to the street committee. Seven Charles street property owners asked council to pave the street. The petition was received and filed.

Another petition signed by 34 citizens and property owners asking that the electric light plant be repaired and re-equipped was received and filed.

A communication from the secretary of the firemen's pension fund submitted a bill for printing which through an oversight had remained unpaid. It was referred to the safety committee.

An ordinance by Mr. Seward amending the ordinance regulating the operation of all vehicles on the street was read the first time.

Mr. Knauber's ordinance regulating the operation of street and interurban cars, revised after passing through the hands of the safety committee, was given its first reading and upon motion of Mr. Knauber the rules were suspended and the measure passed.

An ordinance by Mr. Rexroth to issue bonds in the sum of $6,612.62 to pay the city's portion of cost in street improvements was introduced. The measure was made an emergency measure to provide work for the unemployed. This work will be done as soon as the weather conditions permit.

Special assessment ordinances to pay the city's portion of sewers, street paving and sidewalk construction in various streets introduced by Councilmen Adams, Baker, Ashbrook, Keys, and Payne were given their first reading. Upon motion the rules were suspended and the ordinances passed.

An ordinance by Mr. Seward to issue bonds for the light plant was read the second time.

Mr. Rexroth introduced a new resolution authorizing the council clerk and service director to employ an electrical engineer to advise council regarding the cost of the refitting of the light plant. The expense of such engineering was limited to $200. The resolution was adopted on suspension of rules.

Mr. Rexroth offered a resolution authorizing the solicitor to commence ouster proceedings to force all persons to vacate lands owned by the city and lying between Main and Church streets and Front street and the North Fork of the Licking river. The resolution was adopted on suspension of rules.

A resolution approving the action of the solicitor in filing the ouster proceedings was adopted.

A resolution by Mr. Payne authorizing the county auditor to issue a remittal for $[illegible].30 to Wesley Montgomery, the amount being the excess assessment on lots which council agreed were assessed beyond their value. The resolution was adopted.

Solicitor Norpell announced that engineers for the B. and O. and Pennsylvania railroads would be in Newark January 25. The clerk is to notify members of the hour of the arrival of the engineers. The subway construction will be discussed.

Service Director Christian addressed council and told of the visit of the engineer for fire prevention of the National Board of Underwriters, to Newark last week. He said that the Underwriters recommended the adoption of a building and electrical code to govern new structural work in the city and that such a code would so greatly improve conditions here that Newark's fire insurance rate would be reduced.

"The engineer told me" said Mr. Christian "that Newark's waterworks system here was second best in the United States for cities of the size of Newark."

Mr. Christian suggested that council consider the adoption of such code.

Councilman Rexroth stated that Ohio insurance men had had a force of men in the city for the past two weeks making investigation along these lines. He said that they had commented on the lack of a building code here.

Upon motion President Keller appointed a special committee consisting of Messrs. Payne, Rexroth and Knauber to consider the advisability of passing an ordinance.

A Garment Clearance that Means Much to You

SUITS---COATS---DRESSES---FURS ETC. AT 1-2 TO 2-3 LESS

Last Saturday was one of the biggest days our Ready-to-Wear Department has ever experienced. By this we mean the total number of sales almost broke the record mark. This only demonstrates more forcibly the superiority of this sale. It clearly shows that the fundamental principle of this event is an absolute clearance of all garments, regardless of former cost or profit. Hundreds of women have realized this. They have investigated our statements and found not one lacking. As a consequence, they have profited. They have been able to purchase the highest type garments at prices you are asked to pay for the inferior qualities. We know you want to buy to the greatest advantage, to get the most value that your money can possibly obtain—it's a human trait that we all possess. Then why not attend this sale. The assortment of styles is so thorough that the most exacting and discriminating taste can be satisfied, and as to prices, we merely refer you to the three groups quoted below. They tell their story in a straightforward, convincing manner. Why not take time tomorrow to inspect these really incomparable values?

OWNERSHIP

OF STREET RAILROADS BY CITY DISCOURAGED BY MAYOR OF SEATTLE.

Who Fears Motor 'Bus Competition—Portland, However, Thinks Otherwise.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 19.—In two proposition submitted to the city council, abandonment of projects for municipal ownership of street railways was foreshadowed because of motor 'bus competition. One, a resolution introduced yesterday by the leader of the municipal ownership forces in the council, provides for dropping all litigation seeking to acquire an electric line to a suburban town. The other, a message from Mayor Hiram C. Gill, vetoed a bill passed by the city council to submit to voters a plan to extend the present municipal line three miles. The mayor's message said:

"Automobiles are about to supersede car lines. Street railways in all parts of the country are experiencing difficulty in raising money for fear of motor 'bus competition. If the city, in the face of this fact, begins to spend money on further extensions, we are fools rushing in where angels fear to tread."

LICENSES REFUSED TO MOTOR 'BUS BUSINESS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Portland, Ore., Jan. 19.—On the ground that the operation of motor 'buses in Portland had not been established on a permanent basis, the city commission declined yesterday to license or regulate their business.

A hearing had been called at the request of the president of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co., which operates the trolley cars of Portland. The street railway company represented that the motor 'buses by handling short haul traffic exclusively and paying nothing for the privilege, were a menace to the prosperity of the street car company which was obliged to carry people to the outlying districts for a 5 cent fare and to pay heavily in licenses and other dues.

MILITARY RULE IN CONSTANTINOPLE IS VERY STRICT

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. Begy's Mustarine Surely and Speedily Conquers Pains and Aches and Ends Sore Throat and Chest Colds Overnight.

BEGY'S MUSTARINE is better than mustard plasters—better than hot water bags—better than any cough medicine, poultice or liniment for neuralgia, cold in chest, backache, earache, headache, toothache, sore throat, coughs, colds or any pain or ache in any part of the body.

Just rub it on, that's all; it is always ready; will not blister the tenderest skin and will do anything that a mustard plaster does, and do it quicker.

Get a 25-cent box today and keep it on hand at all times. Use it for rheumatic pains and swellings, for lumbago, sprains, strains, soreness, lameness, stiff neck or joints, cramps in legs or pain in stomach.

Rub it on and rid yourself of the distress and misery caused by sore feet, callouses, corns, bunions, frosted feet and chilblains. Be sure it's BEGY'S MUSTARINE in the yellow box. It's the original. T. J Evans can supply you.

CLUB OWNERS OF THREE LEAGUES TO ATTEND HEARINGS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Club-owners of the National, American and Federal Leagues swarmed into Chicago today to attend the injunction proceedings instituted by the Federals against organized baseball, which will open in the United States district court tomorrow.

Practically every club-owner and manager in the two major leagues and Federal organization will be here; it was said, although only few, if any, of the club-owners probably will be called to testify. The case will be handled by the executive committee of the Federal League, members of the National Baseball Commission for the defense, and a large number of attorneys.

R B Ward of the Brooklyn Federals, advised President Gilmore of the league, that he planned to arrive in time to attend the final conference late today of the Federal League's attorneys. Gilmore, at the request of his lawyers, gave up a proposed trip to New York so he could preside at the conference.

BIG MONEY OFFERED ROGER BRESNAHAN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, Jan 19.—Men identified with all three leagues discussed with some surprise the affidavit made yesterday by Roger P Bresnahan, manager of the Chicago Nationals, who gave what is claimed to be the "inside" dealings he had with the Federals.

Bresnahan, according to his affidavit, relates that he was offered a yearly salary of $12,000 together with $25,000 in stock and a bonus of $5,000 to sign as manager of the St. Louis Federal club

After Fielder Jones had been signed as manager of the St Louis club, Bresnahan alleges that he was offered a contract calling for $50,000 for three years' service by the owners of the Brooklyn Federals. The offer also included a $10,000 bonus, he said, for deserting the Chicago Nationals.

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this wonderful healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

DISREPUTE

PREDICTED FOR LIFE-SAVING SERVICE UNLESS FEDERAL AID IS GIVEN.

Report to Congress Urges Retirement Pay and Gives History of Forty-three Years' Work.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Jan. 19.—There were 1476 disasters on the water of the United States during the last fiscal year in which the life-saving service worked alone, according to its report to congress today. The vessels involved carried 5295 persons and the property was valued at $4,542,985. In 323 other instances the service worked in conjunction with the revenue cutter service or other agencies and took part in the rescue of 2691 persons from vessels valued at $10,641,655.

The year's record, the report declares, was made "in the face of an unfortunate situation, a deteriorated life-saving service." It again urges upon congress the need for legislation to provide for retirement pay for life-savers.

"It should be stated," says the report, "that if the present state of affairs is permitted much longer to go unremedied, it is bound seriously to impair the usefulness of the service, if it does not actually bring it into disrepute."

In a general summary of its forty-three years of existence the service is shown to have figures in giving assistance to 28,121 vessels, valued, with British cargoes, at $355,401,084, of which property valued at $288,871,237 was saved. On these vessels were 178,741 persons and only 1455 lives were lost, a less number, it is pointed out, than perished on the Titanic.

HEAVY FIGHTING OF ARTILLERY IS HEARD AT SLUIS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Amsterdam, via London, Jan. 19.—9 29 a. m.—"Heavy artillery fighting has been heard since early Monday around Ypres where the Germans have taken an active offensive," says the Sluis correspondent of the Telegraaf "Their efforts to occupy Ypres have thus far been unsuccessful. Many fresh British troops have arrived at this front."

The correspondent of the Telegraaf at Selzaets, in the region near Ghent, wires that the Germans have issued proclamations forbidding the inhabitants to discuss the war under penalty of heavy fine or long imprisonment "Some of the inhabitants have already been punished," he says. "In fact, the prisons are filled, not with ordinary criminals, but with citizens who have unwittingly been guilty of some infraction of the numerous German prescriptions."

KING RECEIVED WITH ACCLAIM BY SUFFERERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Jan 19—12 35 a. m.—A dispatch to the Havas agency from Avezzano, Italy, says that King Victor Emmanuel, in his trip to the earthquake district Monday, visited Scurcola, Magliano Di Marsi, Massa D'Albe, Cappelle, San Pelino, Paterno, Celano, Ajelli and Carchio. He was received everywhere with expressions of the liveliest gratitude by the inhabitants. Later he returned to Avezzano and when he left that place for Rome, he was accompanied by Signor Ciufelli, the minister of public works who has had charge of the rescue and relief work in the afflicted zone.

Lime-Loss in Tuberculosis

In the Journal of the American Medical Association (January 17, 1914) was the following:

"It has been many times stated that in tuberculosis or in the pre-tuberculosis stage an increased amount of calcium (lime) is lost, both in the urine and feces. In fact, a demineralization has been thought to be a forerunner of the development of tuberculosis * * *.

"Forced feeding of tuberculosis patients and the enormous amount of eggs and milk once given such patients are not now considered advisable by a large number of physicians who are specializing in the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis."

If tuberculosis is due to a loss of lime from the system, the success of Eckman's Alterative in the treatment of this disease may be due, in part, to the fact that it contains a lime salt so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated

Always we have urged users of Eckman's Alterative to attend strictly to matters of food

In addition to rest and proper diet, some effective remedial agent seems to be needed, and in numerous cases of apparent recovery from tuberculosis and kindred throat and bronchial affections Eckman's Alterative has supplied this need.

It does not contain opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so it is safe to try. Your druggist has it or will order it, or you can get it from us direct.

CONSPIRACY

CHARGED AGAINST TWENTY MEN, IN CONNECTION WITH LABOR TROUBLES.

Most Important Criminal Procedure Since McNamara Trials—Defendants Prominent in Arkansas.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan 19—Probably the most important criminal procedure in a labor dispute to find its way into the federal courts since the trial of the iron workers at Indianapolis, will begin in the United States district court here tomorrow, when twenty men will be placed on trial charged with being implicated in the disturbances that have marked the disagreement between union coal miners and the Bache-Denman Coal company at Prairie Creek, since last April. The defendants are.

Peter R Stewart, McAlester, Okla., former president of the United Mine Workers' of America, district No. 21, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Fred W. Holt, McAlester, former secretary of the district, and late Socialist candidate for governor of Oklahoma.

James B. McNamara, former member of the city council of Hartford, Ark

James Slankard, former constable of Hartford township

John Edwards, a merchant of Hartford.

W. W. Roberts, former manager of a telephone company at Mansfield, Akr, and fourteen miners.

All of the men, except Roberts, are charged with conspiracy against the government, he being charged with intimidation and corruption of a witness.

The grand jury indicted twenty-eight men, eight of whom never were apprehended. The trouble between the mine workers and the coal company, which is in the hands of a receiver, together with nine of its subsidiary companies, originated when the corporation decided to adopt the open-shop system. After a number of riots had occurred a temporary injunction, which later was made permanent, was issued against the union miners and the charge against the defendants grew out of alleged violations of this injunction.

A number of the company's plants were burned and a battle of several hours was fought at No. 4 mine, Prairie Creek, on July 17, in which it is alleged, two mine guards were killed. Slankard and Bee Trout, a miner, were acquitted last week in the state court at Greenwood on a charge of having slain the men.

There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Readers' View Point

The Advocate assumes no responsibility for the opinions expressed in the column headed "Readers' Viewpoint." Communications from our readers should be short, plainly written and should be signed though the signature will not be printed if it is so requested. These communications should be upon subjects in which there is general interest and they must be free from abuse or extravagant statements that tend to provoke controversy.

To Whom It May Concern:

Information has just reached me that Mr. W. C. Seward, member of the city council, engaged my services to prepare certain petitions relative to the city light plant which have been circulated and presented to the city council, and in justice to Mr. Seward in his official position, I desire to say that he had nothing to do with me relative to said petition except, that several days after the same had been in circulation he called at my office and asked me if I knew anything about the same, or if I had a copy of the petitions

I told him that I had prepared the petition for some citizens and showed him a copy of the same.

This communication is given for the sole purpose that I do not believe that public officers should be misrepresented to the public.

Respectfully,
ANDREW S MITCHELL.

Poisoning of Dogs—Subject for the Humane Society.

I read an article in your paper last night on the poisoning of dogs on Hudson avenue.

The article did not state that four other dogs in the vicinity of St. Clair street and Hudson avenue had been poisoned within the last week or two.

If these dogs were in any way a nuisance it would certainly have been possible to speak to their owners, instead of resorting to so cruel and dastardly a method of procedure

The poisoners may not know that this is a penitentiary offense. If some concerted effort is made to find out who is doing the poisoning it will probably prove successful. The humane officers will no doubt, take steps to discover the offenders. W.

IF YOUR SKIN ITCHES, JUST USE RESINOL

The moment that Resinol Ointment touches itching skin, the itching stops and healing begins. That is why doctors have prescribed it successfully for nineteen years in even the severest cases of eczema, tetter, ringworm, rashes and other tormenting, unsightly skin eruptions. Aided by warm baths with Resinol Soap, Resinol Ointment restores the skin to perfect health and comfort, quickly, easily and at little cost.

You need never hesitate to use Resinol. It contains absolutely nothing that could injure the tenderest skin—even of a tiny baby. No other treatment for the skin now before the public can show such a record of professional approval. All druggists sell Resinol Ointment (50c. and $1.00), and Resinol Soap (25c.). ## BAKERS SUGGEST TEN CENT LOAF IN UNITED STATES

Chicago, Jan 19—Manufacture of a 10-cent loaf of bread throughout the United States was recommended at a meeting here yesterday of the efficiency board of the National Bakers' Association. The board is made up of bakers from twenty-six cities. They believe this action is necessary as a result of the high price of wheat. Bread, weighing 26 or 27 ounces, can be produced for 10 cents a loaf at a profit, it was said, whereas a loss must be faced in the manufacture of a 5-cent loaf, weighing 12 ounces.

The report of the efficiency board, it was said, will show that at the normal price, flour comprises 73 per cent of the manufacturing cost of bread

Takes Position at Conrad Grocery In Masonic Building

Sam Browne, the well known grocery clerk at the Brillhart store in West Church street, has accepted a position with the Conrad grocery and will assume his new duties Feb. 1. Mr. Browne is an experienced grocer, having practically been brought up in the business and he will add materially to the clerical force of the Conrad store.

Mr. Fenwick Clement, manager of the Conrad store, stated today that mechanics were busy tearing out a partition in the lower floor of the Masonic Temple building so that he will have a double room, when he occupies the two lower west rooms of the Temple in Church street. The interior of the big double room will be finished in white and that effect will be carried out throughout, even to the safe and roll top desks.

Special Feature.

The Advocate takes pleasure in announcing that it has arranged for a special feature of vital interest to every home. This will consist of a series of six articles on the subject: "The High Cost of Distributing Food Products." It is contributed by an editorial-writer of national reputation, after interviews with some of the leading home economics specialists in the country

There will be given graphic instances of the needlessly high cost of getting food products from producer to consumer, and awkwardness of present methods will be shown Suggestions will be made as to how needless costs and unnecessary profits are to be reduced

This feature will interest every housewife who gives the orders every householder who pays the bills, and has special application to the problem of the farmer and retailer. It alone will be worth the price of the paper while the series is running. The first of the six articles appears in today's Advocate.

Newark's Hospital.

Edward H. Everett, the Newark capitalist was in the city yesterday and was permitted to visit the almost completed institution for which his generosity was largely responsible, the new hospital at Indiana and Buena Vista streets.

To every one of the 1800 people who contributed toward this worthy cause due credit is given, and without this aid the new hospital would have been impossible, but to Mr. and Mrs. Everett is due the credit for a splendid donation which formed the nucleus of the fund which has provided the city with an up-to-date institution.

Mr. Everett met with the board of trustees and visited the hospital inspecting the entire building, including the nurse's home which was formerly Mr. Everett's residence. He expressed his entire satisfaction and delight over the work, this being the first opportunity he has had to view the results of the movement to give Newark a modern hospital.

Mr. Everett presented the trustees with his check for $2,500, and $10,000 worth of securities bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent. This last act was in keeping with his agreement when the original proposition was made to the hospital board in 1911.

At that time, Mr. and Mrs. Everett agreed to give their residence property, including about two acres of ground, to the hospital association provided a fund of $50,000 was raised within a year He also agreed to give five per cent of the amount subscribed and $10,000 worth of securities, the income from which was to be used towards maintaining the institution.

The $50,000 was subscribed in eight days in May, 1912. The building has recently been completed. It provides accommodations for 52 patients. The hospital, completely equipped and modern in every way, cost more than $65,000.

Screens, vacuum cleaners, awnings, laundry equipment, landscape gardening, etc., remain to be done and these items will bring the total cost close to $70,000.

More than 1800 Newark people subscribed to the $50,000 fund and almost the full amount of the subscriptions has been collected, a few now being in the process of collection.

Every Newark citizen should realize the benefit to the community from such an institution. It is to be hoped that none will be forced to personally experience such benefits, but of course such a thing is out of the question The hospital makes it possible to give the proper care to those who are afflicted, such care as would be difficult, if not unfeasible, without the proper facilities.

It is to be regretted that every Newark citizen could not have visited the institution, upon the occasion of its opening, that he might see first hand just what provisions have been made for relieving the suffering of mankind.

Newark people will not soon forget the generous giving on the part of their neighbors, nor will they forget the interest of Mr. and Mrs. Everett in their old home, which was evidenced by their munificent gift to the city in general.

The High Cost of Distribution

NO. 1

The past summer was a year of agricultural fertility. Food products ought to be cheap this winter. In a great many rural districts fruits and vegetables have been rotting under the trees and in the garden. Yet while apples, for instance, were wasting in the country, you might have to pay $3 to $5 a barrel to buy them in the cities. Similarly with other products.

The biggest cause of high cost of living is the expense of getting the food from the farms to the consumer. It is the purpose of a series of six editorial articles, prepared after special study and interviews with competent experts to describe briefly the present bungling methods of getting food to the consumer, and to touch on certain suggestions that have been made for lowering the high cost of this distribution.

An investigation was recently made in a city of 100,000 people, of the cost of delivering milk. It was found that something like 100 milk carts were traveling through the place daily, and covering in the aggregate a distance of 2100 miles. Yet there are but about 250 miles of streets in that city. Hence, ten milk carts on an average went through each street. The time of nine of those milk teams was largely wasted. The consumer paid the needless cost. Similarly the teams and motor cars that collected the milk from the outlying country were running over the same ground.

An even more remarkable case is reported from a town of 6000 people to provide which with milk fifty different carts traverse the same streets day by day.

In the city first referred to the milk consumers were paying 8 to 9 cents per quart. Yet the farmers got but 4 cents. Some of them at a distance got but 2½ to 3 cents.

Although the consumer is already paying a high price for milk, yet in many places farmers are quitting the dairy business, because of low returns, and milk famines seem likely. It may yet prove necessary to jack-up the consumer another cent or two.

An endless number of similar instances could be given, showing the inefficiency of present methods of getting food from the farm to the town.

Spirit of the Press

President Wilson.

A good many important newspapers have printed dispatches to the effect that President Wilson's opponents within the Democratic party are starting a movement to prevent his renomination. This merely represents what might be called seasonal imagination The tradition is that just about the middle of any President's term discussion of his renomination ought to begin. These writers and newspapers should confine their interesting speculations to the Republican party. There is plenty of room for guessing there. In the Democratic party there is no room whatever for guessing There is nobody in sight except Wilson and there is not likely to be. * * * Any Democrat who is not going to support Wilson for the Presidential nomination in 1916 belongs in the Republican party and will probably vote there All this is on the assumption that Wilson is willing to take the nomination.—Collier's Weekly.

Trolley in Porto Rico.

Since the island of Porto Rico has been under the domination of the United States many traffic improvements have been installed and electric trolley cars are in use in all the larger cities. In Mayaguez however, the third largest city, the antiquated horse car line still remains in use, and very antique it looks. There is only accommodation for three passengers, besides the driver, but presumably at busy times, "strap-hangers" are not objected to.—February Wide World Magazine.

Ohio Farmers Live Best.

Farmers of Ohio live better than those of any state in the Union. The department of agriculture vouchsafes this statement, following a survey of 44 farms in a typical rural section of the Buckeye state, just completed. Each of the Ohio farms supports an average of 4.1 persons on 175 acres. A revenue of $807.70 yearly was required to supply each family with necessities. Of this however, only a small part took the form of cash outlay. Of food, 66.5 per cent. or almost exactly two-thirds, is produced on the farm. More than 90 per cent. of the vegetables. A very small per cent. of the household diet was found to come from the garden—only 7.5 per cent—and it is recommended that Ohio farmers give increased attention to their gardens. —Columbus Citizen.

Election Frauds.

Eighty of the 111 persons indicted for election frauds in Terre Haute have pleaded guilty. Evidently there was a conspiracy of considerable extent for illegally influencing the election. While the temptation is strong and there will always be some of these crimes there is increasing public sentiment against them, and punishment is every year a little more certain. It will not be long before it will be as dangerous to commit an election fraud as to break into a store. The men who conduct the campaigns for both parties are disposed to look indulgently upon those who commit frauds on their side, but there is an increasing number of men who are not partisan enough for that and who insist on the punishment of all ballot-box crooks whatever side they may be on. These Western crooks were on both sides; they voted the Democratic ticket in Indiana and the Republican ticket in Illinois.—Pittsburg Record.

Shock to Uncle Joe.

What will Uncle Joe Cannon say when he hears that a Republican State Senate in New York has tumbled the Lieutenant Governor aside and appointed its own committee? This is a slavish imitation of the pernicious example of the Democrats in Congress who almost broke Uncle Joe's heart when they deprived the Speaker of the power of making committee appointments. That sort of anarchy is to be expected of Democrats but how can Uncle Joe endure the spectacle of a straightout Republican legislative body worshiping such strange gods? — New York World.

Boston Girl's Confusion.

It is said that a Boston girl was seen to blush the other day. On investigation, it was found that she had misquoted Emerson.—Charleston News and Courier.

Mutual Disrespect.

William Howard Taft evidently does not care what becomes of any other ex-president and Theodore Roosevelt seems to feel the same way about it.—Washington Star.

Steel Production.

The Steel Corporation's unfilled orders showed a gain last month of now John A. Topping, chairman of new John A. Topping, chairman of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, one of the largest of the independent concerns, expresses the belief that the corner in the steel depression has been turned. The steel mills, he believes, are running a larger per cent. of their capacity than last year and he sees indications of an increased consumption of iron and steel in the domestic markets and abroad.—Philadelphia Record.

"Well, I see the Germans have taken Lodz."

"I'll bite. Loads of what?"—Buffalo Express.

Efficiency.

"My wife was talking; I hung on every word, and then, and then—"

Sister's Beau—"I don't play baseball at all, Willie."

Little Willie—"Why, I heard Sis tell ma you were such a good catch."—Baltimore American.

Uncle Walt

THE MERCIFUL MAN.

Oh, friend protect your faithful steed, which cannot well explain its need, as human speakers do; it cannot tell a tale of woe, but for all comforts it would know your horse must look to you. When it is suffering distress it can't write letters to the press, like wrathful human souls; beneath its burden it must pant; it has no vote, and so it can't rebuke you at the polls. When winter tempests howl like sin you wrap yourself from heels to chin in things that keep you warm; into a cap your head you shove, and on each hand you put a glove, and you defy the storm. But Dobbin stands, tied to a post, out where the blizzard blizzes most, with shaking bones and thews; if horses wept he'd shed some tears; he has no earmuffs on his ears, he has no overshoes. His silent protest is in vain, unless some officer humane should take him to the barn, you know your horse is freezing there, yet bask at ease and do not care the fraction of a darn. I do not see how any gent can sit around in calm content upon a stormy day, and know his horse is standing tied out where the wind can pierce its hite, and turn its blood to whey.

Neutrality and Arbitration Treaties Useless Unless Backed by Force

By THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Former President of the United States

Mrs. Spohn, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Goodin, handsomely entertained the wedding party with a supper. The happy couple will be "at home" to friends in Brownsville immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Copley of Central City delightfully entertained with a sumptuous dinner Sunday, January 17, the occasion being Mr. Copley's seventieth birthday anniversary.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eis, and son Wilbur, and Master Earl Gleckler, all of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jarrett of Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Copley of Central City, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long of Mt. Vernon road, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cain and son Harold of Hebron, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Copley and son Joseph of the home.

The Corticella club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. DeFrance in Hancock street.

The members of the Monday Talks were entertained at the home of Mrs. William L. Prout in North fifth street on Monday, and the following program was given:

Valpariso to Mendoza — The Christ of the Andes—Miss Jessie Robbins.

Catherine the Second of Russia — Mrs. Gregory.

The next meeting will be held in the parlors of the Second Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Butt delightfully entertained the ladies of the Social Sewing club with a dinner. Covers were laid for fifteen members. A business meeting was held and sewing followed. They adjourned at an early hour to meet with Mrs. Bound in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Paramore of North Fourth street were pleasantly surprised Monday evening when a large company of their friends took possession of their home about eight o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Paramore were then informed that it was all on account of their wedding anniversary and that the intruders wished to celebrate it in a fitting manner. When the suddenness of the invasion wore away all were given the glad hand of hospitality and spent a delightful evening in a varied array of games and music until a late hour. An appetizing luncheon was also served. Mr. and Mrs. Paramore were presented with several handsome hand-painted plates, the work of Mrs. Melvin E. Davis.

The following were in attendance: Messrs. and Mesdames D. R. Hunt, J. C. Berger, Fred J. Cosway, E. S. Varner, A. S. Mitchell, T. A. Bazler, James McGough, H. S. Barrick, Melvin E. Davis, E. E. Hess, J. S. Rugg, K. I. Dickerson, Mrs. F. M. O'Hare, Mrs. Easterday, Misses Burdelle Paramore, Lorena and Grace Berger, Janice Barrick, and Messrs. Ellsworth Davis and William Barrick.

The G. I. A. to the B. of L. E. will entertain with a euchre party on Thursday evening in the B. of L. E. hall in East Main street.

Miss Leontine Moore entertained informally with two tables of bridge at her home in Seventh street on Monday afternoon honoring Miss Mary Brumhall of Zanesville. The guests were Miss Brumhall, Mrs. Sam Cohen, Mrs. James Cooper, Mrs. Ralph Hutchinson, Mrs. Fred Warner, Mrs. Carl Swisher and Miss Rhea Ingler.

The employes of the Meyer & Lindorf store invaded the home of Mr. Frank Stevens in Pearl street on Monday evening and a masquerade surprise was held. The visitors were in many grotesque costumes and the award for the most attractive gown was awarded to Miss Ida Crawmer, a Colonial maid. Miss Dorothy Kelley received the souvenir for the most original costume and in the button contest the awards were made to Miss Louise Pieri and Miss Daisy Drum. Miss May Beiber and Mr. Irwin Huggins received the trophies in the needle threading contest. An appetizing luncheon was served to about forty guests.

Miss Ila Biddle delightfully entertained the members of the L'Inconnu club and their friends at her home in Twelfth street on Friday evening.

Those present were Misses Sylvia Proctor, Violet Coss, Hazel Spurier, Indus Dush, Mary Rossel, Marie Bourner, Frances Swern, Hazel Neibel, and the hostess; the Messrs. Ralph Shaw, Walter Riechert, Parker Wolfe, Charles Smith, Wilber, DeVore, George Wolfe, Harold Priest, Ed Ewald, Archie Goodwin and Ralph McLaughlin.

On Friday of this week the annual meeting of the Southeast District of the State Federation of Women's clubs will be held in the First Presbyterian church of this city. The morning session will open at 9:30 o'clock and the afternoon at 2 o'clock. On Thursday evening preceding the sessions, a reception will be held in the parlors of the Second Presbyterian church to give the Newark women an opportunity to meet the out of town delegates. A cordial invitation has been extended the public to attend the meetings.

GET RID OF HUMORS... AND AVOID SICKNESS

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. Get Hood's. No other medicine acts like it.

To Keep Skin Healthy, Youthful, Wrinkleless

Now that the social season is here, be especially careful to keep your skin in fine condition. You know how conspicuous complexion defects appear under the bright light of the drawing or ball room. Also how very evident are some makeups when similarly illuminated. I have myself discarded cosmetics entirely, using a process which gives far better results, and which leaves no trace on the skin. At night I smear on a thin coat of ordinary mercolized wax, washing it off next morning. This gradually absorbs the devitalizing particles of surface skin; just as gradually the more youthful skin beneath comes forth, providing a complexion as clear, smooth and delicately tinted as a young girl's. Get an ounce of mercolized wax at your druggist's and try this remarkable treatment.

Remember, too, that wrinkles, even the finest lines, are not easily concealed in a brilliantly lighted room. You can quickly obliterate these hateful marks by bathing your face in a solution of powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, ½ pt. And your face won't look sticky, as after using pastes.—Aunt Sally in Woman's Realm.

IDA TARBELL DEFENDS BIG CORPORATIONS

IN HER TESTIMONY SHE SAID THEY LOOKED AFTER EMPLOYES' WELFARE

Better Than Ever Before and Advocated Better Management of Shops.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Jan. 19.—Miss Ida M. Tarbell, author and investigator, testified at the continuation today of the investigation of the federal industrial relations committee into the great philanthropic foundations that her observance over a period of 25 years led her to believe that working conditions generally were constantly improving and that large corporations were now more acutely interesting themselves in the welfare of their employes than ever before. She advocated the scientific management of shops and the establishment of an eight-hour day as panaceas for labor troubles and a means of bettering the living conditions of workers.

The witness asserted that the cost of living had increased at a rate greater than wages. She did not believe suffrage was an important factor in dealing with social unrest among workers. The United States Steel corporation, she declared, had done more in recent years to provide safety and better living conditions for its employes than almost any other large concern.

John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America and a member of the New York state labor commission, will testify late this afternoon. Another witness down for the afternoon session was Representative David J. Lewis, of Maryland.

Samuel Untermyer the attorney and Roger W. Babson, a statistician of Wellesley Hills, Mass., told the commission yesterday their views on the rights of labor and each assailed the "absentee control" of many of the leading industries of the country as being both unfair to the workers and contrary to good business policy.

Mr. Untermyer demanded a national corporation law the abolition of the control of corporations by small interests, compulsory minority representation, and the doing away with voting by proxy.

Mr. Babson also dwelt on the necessity of doing away with proxies and holding the annual meetings of directors in the actual mills.

WEIL'S BOND TO BE MADE SMALLER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 19.—A. Leo Weil, indicted yesterday by a special grand jury on a charge of attempting to bribe C. H. Bronson, member of the public service commission, will remain under $25,000 bond until tomorrow, according to an agreement reached by his counsel and Prosecuting Attorney T. M. Townsend. A new bond for a smaller amount will be fixed by the court at that time, when the date of trial also will be set, probably for this term.

STOMACH TROUBLES DUE TO ACIDITY

SO SAYS EMINENT SPECIALIST.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind, and stomach-ache are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acids. Wind distends the stomach, and causes that full, oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the fermenting food. Such fermentation is unnatural, and acid formation is not only unnatural, but may involve most serious consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and render it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, probably the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water immediately after eating, or whenever wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. Fermentation, wind and acidity are dangerous and unnecessary. Stop or prevent them by the use of a proper antacid, such as magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist and thus enable the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by poisonous gas and dangerous acids.—M. F. P.

NEWARK R. F. D. 7

The funeral of Mr. Henry Stickle, who died at his home one mile north of Wilkins Corners, Thursday morning, was held at the Wilkins school house Sunday afternoon. Interment made in the Barnes cemetery.

Mrs. C. B. Moore and son Ralph, are spending a few days with her parents in Newark.

Mr. Abner Nichols and mother spent Thursday with Mrs. George Grumm.

The Wilkins Run rat hunt closed Tuesday evening. A sumptuous oyster supper was served by the losing side Friday night.

Mr. C. B. Fisk took dinner with his sister, Mrs. Nettie Frampton of Perrydon, one day last week.

Mrs. Charles Parker spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kerr, of Newark, her brother, Charles Kerr, being ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. James Livingston took dinner Sunday at the home of Allen Moore and attended the funeral of Mr. Stickle in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Sherman spent Sunday with Jobe Davis and family.

Mr. Wm. Fisk hauled feed from Newark Saturday.

Tried to Convert the Sultan.

The first Englishwoman to have speech with a sultan of Turkey was Mary Fisher, a Quakeress, who, in 1657, undertook to convert the commander of the faithful to Christianity. She traveled by water to Smyrna and then tramped to Adrianople, about 600 miles away, where Mohammed IV. was encamped with his army. After many attempts, Mary found some one bold enough to tell the grand vizier that "a woman was come who had something to declare from the great God to the sultan." He arranged for an audience with his master, at which three dragomans were in attendance as interpreters, and Mohammed was so impressed with what he heard that, while unwilling to become a Christian, he desired that Mary should stay in his dominions. When she insisted on returning, he offered her an escort, adding, "I would not for anything that you should come to the least hurt." She got back safely to England and was honored ever after among her fellow Quakers as "she that spake to the Grand Turk."—London Chronicle.

Russians Like "Paradise Lost."

How many English soldiers, one wonders, have read "Paradise Lost?" Mr. Maurice Baring, when in Russia, found that nearly every soldier he met knew it well. "When a few years ago a schoolmaster in the Tambor government told me that 'Paradise Lost' was the most popular book in the village library," he writes, "I was astonished and thought it an isolated instance. At a fair in Moscow during passion week * * * I noticed that there were five or six different editions of translations of Milton's poem, with illustrations, ranging in price from 12 rubles to 30 kopeks, and while I was looking at one of them a moujik came up to me and advised me to buy it. 'It's very interesting,' he said. 'It makes one laugh and cry.' * * * It is possible to purchase 'Paradise Lost' at almost every village booth."—London Graphic.

Making the Ghost Visible.

Comparing the stage conveniences of the present day with the makeshifts existing a generation ago, Robert Mantell told of the inconveniences of his early experience as the ghost in "Hamlet."

"One night I was playing the part of the ghost," he says, "and as I was not very certain of myself the stage manager had the lamps turned down unusually low. As a matter of fact, they were so low that while I was on the stage they went out. Of course, they had to be lighted again, and the stage manager sent out a stage hand to do it. I had to remain where I was, and the ghost's funeral lines were recited while a man in civilian clothes slowly and painstakingly made his way across the darkened stage, lighting the lamps as he went."

Sydney Smith on War.

Sydney Smith found humor in most things, but none in war. In the Edinburgh Review of a century ago he wrote: "If three men were to have their legs and arms broken and were to remain all night exposed to the inclemency of the weather the whole country would be in a state of the most dreadful agitation! Look at the wholesale death of a battlefield—ten acres covered with dead and dying, and the shrieks and agonies of many thousand human beings! There is more misery inflicted upon mankind by one year of war than by all the civil peculations and oppressions of a century." And he added that it was the business of wise and good men to set themselves against the spirit that produced wars—"this passion for military glory."

To Remove Adhesive Plasters.

Every one who has had occasion to use adhesive plaster is familiar with the line of adherent, discolored material that is left on the skin around the edges of the plaster when the strip is removed. This adherent substance resists scrubbing with soap and all ordinary means of removal. Even scraping with a knife fails to remove the grime and stickiness completely. But a few drops of gasoline, benzine, ether or chloroform on a piece of cloth will remove the stain as if by magic. The basis of adhesive plaster is rubber, and the four substances mentioned are rubber solvents.—Los Angeles News.

In the Dumps.

There was once an Egyptian king, so it is said, who built a pyramid and died of melancholy. His name was Dumops, yet there are probably few persons who know that they are perpetuating the memory of his tragic history when they remark that they are "in the dumps."

A Trouble Maker.

"What sort of a fellow is he?"

"A trouble maker."

"He seems peaceable enough."

"I know, but he's the sort of a blundering chap that denies all the ingenious lies you've told your wife."—Detroit Free Press.

Considerate.

"The most considerate wife I ever heard of," said the philosopher, "was a woman who used to date all her letters a week or so ahead to allow her husband time to post them."

Pretty Thin.

"Thin!" replied the man who was talking about a mutual acquaintance. "Well, he's so thin that when he eats macaroni he can only swallow it one piece at a time!"

Mexican Pineapple.

One kind of Mexican pineapple, known as the cayenne, is entirely free from spines, and the flesh is remarkably tender and juicy.

COMMISSION TO CONSIDER OHIO VICES

URGED UPON GOVERNOR WILLIS BY DELEGATION OF CHURCH MEN

Who Pledge Him Support of All Church and Religious Organizations in the State.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—Vice of all kinds in Ohio will be investigated by an official state commission appointed by the governor, if plans presented to Governor Willis and members of the legislature today by a delegation of church men and reform advocates from over the state are carried out.

Governor Willis was urged to give the proposition his official indorsement in a future message to the general assembly. It was announced that a bill is being prepared providing for creation of the commission and making an appropriation of several thousand dollars for financing its work.

The delegation which invaded the statehouse today in behalf of this measure, was headed by Rev. A. S. Gregg of Cleveland, superintendent of the American Civic Reform Union.

The governor was told by the delegation that all the churches and religious organizations in the state will support the proposition to create a vice commission, similar to those which have made investigations in other states. The commission would take two years to conduct its inquiry into conditions and causes of vice, and report its recommendations to the general assembly in 1917, according to the plan proposed.

Among those in the delegation which came to the capitol in behalf of this measure, were: E. H. Rhoades, Toledo; N. B. Hastings, Akron; W. B. Chamberlain, Dayton; W. A. Everson, Hamilton, and Dr. John Herget, Cincinnati.

CHARITIES BOARD APPOINTS FINANCE COMMITTEE TODAY

At a meeting of the board of managers of the Associated Charities held Tuesday morning, announcement was made of the selection of a finance committee which will have charge of the soliciting of subscriptions for the work to be done through the Associated Charities.

The committee is headed by Charles W. Montgomery, chairman, who is also treasurer for the board of managers, and the following well known and influential people as members: W. L. Prout, J. K. Dewey, George H. Hamilton, Ray Martin, E. M. Baugher, Benjamin Montgomery, Daniel Altschool, Mrs. W. D. Fulton, H. E. Watson, N. C. Sherburn, S. C. Alsdorf, John F. Swisher, C. Harrington Davis, Frank M. Schimpf and Lee Riley.

At the headquarters of the board, in Room 14, second floor of the Hibbert and Schaus building, a number of applications for relief were received Tuesday morning between the hours of 9:00 and 11:00 when the headquarters is open. More than a half dozen of these were from persons who have never before applied for relief but have been forced to because of non-employment.

Several members of The King's Daughters and members of the Molders' Union volunteered their services and were on duty Tuesday morning. They were assigned to the task of investigating the applications for relief.

The board is delighted with the spirit in which the people of the city have approved the movement as indicated by their cheerful help in the work and generous contribution of funds with which to conduct the work.

PARDON REVOKED WHEN MAN DRANK; AGAIN IN PRISON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—Clarence Atwood, sentenced to the penitentiary in September, 1913, for non-support, from Jefferson county, and who was granted a conditional pardon by Governor Cox, was received at the penitentiary to complete his sentence for a violation of the pardon by becoming intoxicated.

The probate court of the county found that Atwood had provided for his wife and six children, but that he was again indulging in intoxicants and sentenced him to serve the remainder of his three-year term.

An effort will be made to have Governor Willis give Atwood another chance, as his wife and six children will be placed in destitute circumstances as a result of his confinement.

RECEIVER

ASKED FOR RUMELY COMPANY A THIRTY MILLION DOLLAR CORPORATION.

With a View of Reorganizing the Business—Makes Agricultural Machinery.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Indianapolis, Jan. 19.—Petition for a receiver for the M. Rumely company, the $30,000,000 agricultural machinery manufacturing concern was filed in the U. S. district court here today. Rumors that an effort would be made to place the corporation in the hands of receivers, as a means to reorganize, have been current for some time. Immediately after filing the suit, Clarence S. Funk, president of the Rumely company, and the attorneys went to the home of Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, who is ill, with the intention of asking that a receiver be appointed at once.

Among the attorneys, it was stated that Mr. Funk would be named to take charge of the property as receiver.

The receivership is intended, it is stated, to lift the company out of its financial difficulties, which began about two years ago when it was discovered that there had been a great overproduction of farming machinery. The company was reorganized then and a number of plants closed down pending the liquidation of the overproduction.

Pressure, it is understood, has been added to the situation by the fact that the company has some $3,000,000 in loans at banks secured by farmers' notes.

RECEIVERS NOW IN CHARGE OF AFFAIRS OF BANK PRESIDENT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 19.—Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen and Judge R. E. Umble, in common pleas court here today, appointed receivers to take charge of the affairs of Josiah V. Thompson, president of the First National bank of Uniontown which was yesterday closed by order of the board of directors. The petition was filed by John M. Freeman, of Pittsburg, who said the proceeding was necessary to take care of the unsecured creditors of Thompson whose claims amount to approximately $7,000,000. The assets, it was stated, were no less than three times that amount.

RECEIVER NAMED FOR ROCK ISLAND

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Jan. 19.—The federal district court today appointed Walter C. Noyes, receiver of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad company, the Iowa corporation, whose stock was sold at public auction two weeks ago. The receiver's bond was fixed at $75,000.

The company for which the receiver was appointed is a holding company, the operating company being the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway company. The receiver was appointed as a development in the litigation begun by The Central Trust company of New York, as trustees, for its bond-holders.

Evolution of a Name.

Cosmo Innes, in his work on surnames, quotes an instance showing the gradual transformation of a patronymic. "A respectable citizen of Dublin named Halfpenny throve in trade, so his children prevailed on him in his latter years to change the name, which they thought undignified, and this he did chiefly by dropping the last letter. He died and was buried as Mr. Halpen. The fortune of the family did not recede, and the son of our citizen thought proper to renounce retail dealing, and at the same time looked about for a euphonious change of name. He made no scruple of dropping the unnecessary 'h.' That being done, it was easy to go into the Celtic rage, which 'The Lady of the Lake' had just raised to a great height. So he who had run the streets as little Kenny Halfpenny came out at the levees as Kenneth McAlpin, the descendant of a hundred kings."—London Chronicle.

Diplomacy.

When King Alfonso of Spain is staying at San Sebastian, says the Manchester News, he frequently goes across to Biarritz for an afternoon of recreation.

On one occasion he arrived at the station there and hailed a fiacre. The driver recognized him, and when his majesty asked what the fare was said, "For the king of Spain it will be 10 francs." The king smiled and merely paid the ordinary fare as provided by the tariff. To that amount, however, he added a tip of the usual size.

A few days later he was again in Biarritz and also took a fiacre. But on this occasion the coacher was more diplomatic. When asked the amount of the fare he replied, "Your majesty owes me nothing for the small service I have had the honor to render him." His majesty replied to this courteous speech by presenting the cabby with a 100 franc note.

Bricks From Babylon.

There is a law in the Turkish empire prohibiting the exportation of relics and antiques more than 100 years old, and the fact that it is on the statute books gives rise to the common practice of offering spurious articles to the tourist. Real objects of art or of sufficient age to be of value are rarely to be purchased, and the general desire of the visitor, therefore, seems to be to obtain stones or pieces of clay from the sites of ancient ruins or bricks with inscriptions. The former can probably be obtained, but they are practically valueless, as one piece of clay from Babylon is quite like another from Mosul. Bricks from either of these places that are known to be genuine are unobtainable.

With Military Honors.

It is not universally known what is meant by a funeral "with full military honors." In such a funeral the coffin is borne on a gun carriage.

If the dead soldier was an infantryman his sword and helmet rest on his coffin.

At the funeral of a cavalry soldier his sword and helmet are fastened to the saddle of his horse, which is led immediately behind the gun carriage, and his top boots, with spurs attached, are fastened in the stirrups, with the toes pointing backward.

A firing party, drawn, if possible, from the deceased's regiment, fire three volleys over the grave, and the "Last Post" is then sounded by buglers.—Pearson's Weekly.

Chicago Grain.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Chicago, Jan. 19.—Increased receipts northwest counted against the bulls today on wheat. Lower quotations at Liverpool had also a bearish effect and so too, did the renewal of snow protection throughout the winter crop belt, especially western Kansas. After opening 2@2½ cents off to ¼ cent advance, was followed by a moderate setback all round.
Continued selling by one of the largest houses weighed on oats, but speculators seemed to have a monopoly on the demand.
Inquiry for provisions was slow. A decline in hog prices served to make buyers cautious.

Calves: Receipts 50 cars; top 11.50.

New York Stock Exchange.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, Jan. 19.—Stocks opened with another burst of activity and generally higher prices, trading settled down before the end of the first half hour. With a few exceptions as Missouri Pacific, Lehigh Valley and Steel, all of which lost a point or more, gains were mostly fractional. Bethlehem Steel declined a point probably in the belief that the directors will not declare a dividend on the stock at today's meeting. It soon made partial recovery. As usual, of late, a large part of the dealings was in the specialties, with a good demand for coppers.
Following its early low, the advance was resumed on about the largest scale witnessed since the renewal of business. Transactions in the first hour aggregated 140,000 shares and embraced the greatest variety of issues. The significant feature, however, was that favorites asserted their former leadership, although Missouri Pacific led all stocks in point of activity. U. S. Steel changed hands in blocks of 1,000 to 1,700 shares, gaining a point. Extraordinary ease of money, as seen in the steady reduction of emergency currency, was perhaps the most potent factor in the movement. Bonds were strong.

BURTON RESUMES HIS ATTACK ON SHIPPING BILL

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, Jan. 19.—Senator Burton resumed his attack on the shipping bill when the senate convened today. Turning from the argument he had been making for two days, the senator read to the senate a speech on ship subsidy he made in 1911.
"I read this speech," said Senator Burton, "because it applies here, is more carefully prepared than anything I could prepare now, and in the words of Dean Swift, shows how well I could write when I was a young man."

CHILD INJURED VERY SERIOUSLY BY AUTOMOBILE

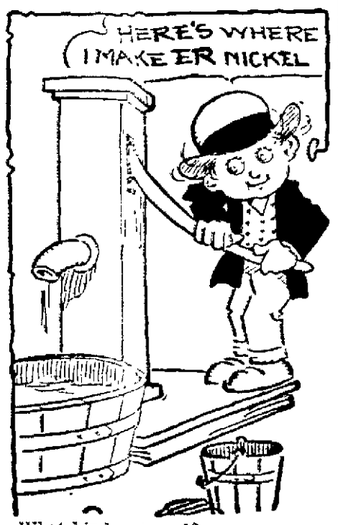

William Richards, age 7, son of William H. Richards, a rural route mail carrier, living at 268 Granville street, was seriously injured when he was struck by an automobile at noon today.
The child had been coasting in Woods avenue, and with his sled ran in front of the machine. In order to avoid striking the child the driver ran into the curbing but he failed to miss the boy and he was knocked down. The Bazler & Bradley ambulance was called and it was found that he had suffered a broken leg and received other injuries.

CANADIAN SOLDIERS FURNISHED BAIL IN THE SUM OF $90,000

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Toronto, Ont., Jan. 19.—Bail for the four men under arrest on charges of manslaughter in connection with the shooting December 28 of Charles Dorsch and Walter Smith of Buffalo, who were hunting ducks on the Canadian side of the Niagara river, opposite Fort Erie, was fixed today at a total of $90,000 for the four. Of this sum Constable Delaney must furnish $50,000 for his appearance, and the three militiamen $20,000 each. Otherwise they will remain in jail. Their trial will commence March 22.

Under the new regulations every soldier and officer in France receives a special annual bonus of 200 francs for every child under 16 years of age.

WHAT IS IT?

What kind of bread?

Answer to Monday's puzzle—Pinafore.

1915 This year 1915 will be the greatest year in American business history. It may or may not be the most profitable year but it will be the greatest year because we must learn to stand on our own feet and walk without crutch, cane or the hand of a mother country. The support on which we leaned has been taken away by war and we have discovered that we can walk alone. Knowing the guide posts in the monthly Trade Report issued by this Bank may be a help in saving business missteps.

The Courts

In common pleas court on Tuesday, the court heard the case of the City of Newark vs. Central Ohio Realty company. Plaintiff brings the suit in ejectment of property on East Main street, near the East Main street bridge. The ground was leased many years ago for the purpose of conducting a woolen mill. By reason of the fact that the mill was discontinued years ago, the city asks that a forfeiture of the lease be declared. The court took the case under advisement.
The jurors were discharged until Wednesday morning at which time the case of George Garlinghouse vs. Ohio Electric Railway company is for trial. Plaintiff sues to recover compensation growing out of personal injuries received.
George D. Dicken vs. B. and O., heretofore assigned for trial today; continued. Plaintiff sues to recover damages on account of the killing of a number of horses belonging to him, the accident occurring on the Straitsville division.

Juvenile Court.
Officer John Dwyer of the juvenile court now has in his possession three air guns, the property of three young lads, each aged about twelve years, two of whom reside in Poplar avenue and one in Sixth street and who were taken before Juvenile Judge Robbins Hunter on the charge of having shot at an automobile owned by C. W. Miller, the well known South Second street meat dealer, and driven by Mrs. Miller. The boys amused themselves at shooting at the auto as it was passing along a street in the south part of the city. One of the shot went into the back part of the auto and the boys were reported and gathered in by Officer Dwyer. Mr. Miller stated that he did not want to prosecute them but that he did want their guns confiscated to prevent a repetition of a similar occurrence. The court agreed to the proposition and the boys were discharged with a warning after their guns had been denied them.

SHAUCK'S REAL ESTATE BULLETIN
Over Franklin Bank

32 acres, 5 miles from Urbana, close to elevator and interurban, good pike, excellent land, but no buildings, will trade for any old thing. An excellent location on Granville street near Ninth with a six-room brick house and bath, that can be easily built to and made a magnificent home, with a lot 76 feet front by 180 feet deep, and at a price of $4500.00, is certainly worth your consideration if you are looking for a first class location. Nine room, Oakwood avenue, easily arranged for two tenants, good repair, a bargain at $3,000.00; this property too large for owner, and will consider trade for good small property in good rental district. And now, you fellows who are looking for a farm: 93 acres 2½ miles from Newark, a little rolling, high state of cultivation, well watered and fenced, on pike, assessments but $60.00, several hundred dollars worth of timber, $400 to $500 worth of hay to be cut this summer, all down in grass, worth $7500 will make you $2,000 if you place buildings thereon, can be bought for $6120 if you hurry. That is not all, you will kick yourself if you ever fail it out, and you are not the purchaser.

LADIES! GROW THICK, FLUFFY, GLOSSY HAIR

Amazing Results, Growing and Beautifying Hair! No More Dandruff!

How old are you—35?—40?—45? Look back to the days when you were 20 and had the thick, beautiful, fluffy, lustrous, long, flowing hair of youth. Have you lost it? That's because you have not given your hair the kind of attention nature demanded. It has become dull, thin, lifeless, dandruff has crept in—and you are losing your hair!

Here's a chance for any resident of Newark to stop this loss and bring back the glorious locks of youth. Go to T J Evans and get a 50-cent bottle of Harfina and begin at once to lay the foundation for a new head of hair—actually a new growth of soft, fine, luxuriantly beautiful hair! For Harfina feeds each hair root, nourishes each gland and follicle, and in a surprisingly short time really causes new hair to appear

Even one application of Harfina brings out the fluffiness, the lustre and freshness you so much desire and admire Moreover, Harfina destroys dandruff—makes the scalp clean—cures itching—and really stops the hair from falling.

For these results you must get the genuine Harfina and refuse all others. The druggist above mentioned recommends it, guarantees it, and will refund money if it doesn't do as claimed.

VON HINDENBERG GETS MUCH ADVICE IN MANY LETTERS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Headquarters Germany Armies of the East, Jan. 1.—Field Marshal von Hindenberg receives a letter each week from a Munich physician containing exhaustive plans for the campaign and maintaining that he cannot be responsible for what will happen unless his suggestions are followed. The physician is the most regular of von Hindenberg's volunteer aides and councillors. His weekly letters have come to be looked for with interest and expectation, but there are thousands of others who feel called upon to help out the field marshal with advice.

A feature of many of these plans is the suggestion that a dam be thrown across the Vistula river at Thorn, where the river enters Germany after making a great bend through Poland, in order to flood the country and force the Russians to retreat.

Von Hindenberg's unsolicited correspondence is immense—two clothes baskets full of letters and telegrams daily. Of these, naturally, comparatively few reach the field marshal and his aides have to be cautious in submitting even these to him, for the conscientious old army leader cannot be restrained from answering in extrenso and in in his own hand many a letter which appeals to him.

The same consideration which leads the field marshal to write answers in long-hand to letters shown to him is exhibited in his treatment of deputations and other visitors.

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy, Inexpensive but Unequaled

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 54 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent, loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FRENCH REPORT OCCUPATION OF ENEMY'S WORKS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Jan. 19.—The French war office this afternoon gave out an official communication as follows:

"In Belgium there has been a snowstorm and also intermittent artillery exchanges at certain points. There was also a fall of snow yesterday in the region of Arras, where our heavy artillery on several different occasions silenced the batteries of the enemy.

"As we set forth yesterday a fairly spritied engagement has been developing at La Boisselle where, following the breaking out of several fires, we were compelled during the night of Jan. 17 and 18 to evacuate our positions These however we recaptured Jan 18, at daybreak. The enemy has not renewed his attacks on this part of our front.

"In the section of Soissons the bombardment of the suburb of St. Paul during the night of January 17 and 18, was not followed by any infantry attack, and the day of Jan. 18 passed in absolute calm.

"In the valley of the Aisne to the east of Soissons, and in the section of Reims there were yesterday artillery exchanges.

"To the northwest of Pont A Mousson we yesterday occupied another field work of the enemy in the forest of Le Pretere, where we today occupy 500 yards of the trenches of the enemy.

"In the Vosges yesterday saw a snowstorm. Here also there has been artillery fighting particularly in Ban De Sapt and in the neighborhood of Thann."

OFF FOR A BIG TIME

LEFT FOR DETROIT TO ATTEND THE WALK-OVER CONTION.

Shoe Styles and Prices for the Coming Year Will be Discussed.

Messrs. D. R. Manning of this city and F. T. Manning of Waterbury, Conn, left on Saturday for Detroit to attend the convention of the Retail Walk-Over Dealers convention to be held from Jan 17 to 20, at Hotel Tuller. It is expected that about 500 Walk-Over dealers will be at the convention, out of a total of some 6000, who sell Walk-Over shoes all over the world.

This yearly convention brings the heads of the Geo. E. Keith Co., of Campello, Mass., the manufacturers of Walk-Over shoes, into conference with their retailers, to discuss footwear styles for the coming year Among the other subjects to be discussed will be store management, advertising, retail prices, and service, and each dealer will return home with new ideas to help him extend his business.

The shortage of leather, caused by the war, and its effect upon shoe prices, will make the work of the convention of unusual interest to the public at large. During the past year there has also been a great increase in the use of fabrics, in shoe making, and the next few years promise to witness an increase of this movement. This will mean a revolution in popular styles, and the present convention will largely determine what those styles will be. A national Walk-Over style show will be held during the days of the convention, at which the new Walk-Over styles for the coming spring and summer will be displayed.

The convention will be held at the new Hotel Tuller, located on Grand Circus Park. Every convenience known to modern hotel builders has been incorporated in the new Hotel Tuller; and the shoe men while they are in Detroit, will "own" the hotel. The city of Detroit, the board of commerce, and the Detroit Walk-Over organization will act as hosts.

ARTILLERY OF GERMANS IN ACTION NOW

AND A BATTLE IS REPORTED IN PROGRESS FOR POSSESSION OF YPRES

This Marks the Third Offensive Movement Within a Week by Teuton Invaders.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Jan. 19.—The Germans have begun another offensive movement, according to unofficial advices today from Holland. It is said that a German heavy artillery went into action yesterday and that a battle is in progress for possession of Ypres. The British are moving in fresh troops to defend this town, around which occurred some of the heaviest fighting of the war, at the time the Germans were attempting to force their way to the English channel. The assault on Ypres, following the victory of the Germans at Soissons and their attack at Albert, marks the third movement of the kind within a week.

Petrograd dispatches say that the Russian forces are moving rapidly westward through Transylvania which forms the eastern portion of Hungary adjoining Rumania. The Russians now have possession of a mountain pass which gives them easy access to Hungary, according to these advices, which states the Austro-Hungarians were not prepared for victories said to have been won recently by the Russians.

The plight of the Turkish army corps which gave battle to Russians near Kara Urgan in the Caucasian region is described in Petrograd reports as pitiable Those who escaped alive from the battle are said to be fleeing toward Erzerum but owing to capture by Russians of their food supplies are confronted with the alternative of starvation or surrender. It is stated that in one place 900 soldiers were found frozen to death and doubt is expressed that any of the Turks will be able to reach Erzerum.

POET DIED AGED 72.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Jan. 19.—Funeral arrangements were being made here today for Colonel John A. Joyce, known throughout the country by his poems and other writings. He died here yesterday aged 72 years.

Colonel Joyce had lived here for half a century and won the name of "Poet of Washington."

Colonel Joyce laid claims to the authorship of the verses "Love and Laughter." Known throughout the English speaking world by its first line "Laugh and the world laughs with you; Weep and you weep alone," but his claim has been disputed and the controversy at one time attracted wide attention

OF CLEVELAND SINKING FUND HAD AUTHORITY TO PURCHASE CITY'S BONDS.

According to Ohio Supreme Court, Which Refused an Injunction. Other Decisions.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—Overruling the motion of City Solicitor Stockwell of Cleveland, for an order to have the court of appeals of Cuyahoga county certify its record in his suit against the sinking fund trustees, the supreme court today held that no error was present in the decision of the lower court. This action of the court will probably end the effort of the city solicitor, who brought the suit for the city of Cleveland against Mayor Newton D. Baker and the sinking fund commission, to enjoin them from consummating the sale of $500,000 in bonds, known as the Cleveland Electric Light coupon bonds.

The bonds were taken over by the board of trustees of the sinking fund at the time of their issue, in pursuance with the statute requiring the city to first offer its bonds to the board of trustees of the sinking fund, and passed into the possession of the sinking fund commission upon the new city charter going into effect. The sale of the bonds was claimed to be illegal, according to the petition, because the bonds were to be sold at less than par value, and because "it is not necessary to meet the requirements of the sinking fund."

Salvation Army.

The Young People's Annual, at the old M. E church, corner Fourth and Church streets, given by the Juniors of the Salvation Army was a great success. The recitations of the children and the singing by the Brigade of young girls and boys were enjoyed by all. The quartette of little girls of the Sunbeam class, sang so sweetly, "I can Not Do Much, but I Do What I Can," started the hardest sinner to think At the close Adj Watkins gave fifty-four prizes to the Sunday school for attendance. Mr. Alex Smith who is forming a singing class is getting a good hold on the young. This evening Rev Wm. H. Hoskinson will preach. All are invited to htese special jubilee seige meetings.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear; no more hawking, snuffling, blowing, no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

FEDERAL RESERVE SUBJECTS UNDER CONSIDERATION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington Jan. 19.—The question of regulations for the rediscount of acceptances based on the export or import of goods was one of the matters up for consideration at a meeting here today of the advisory council of the federal reserve system.

Other questions which the board expects to act upon after the meeting of the council and of the governors of the 12 federal reserve banks tomorrow include regulations for acceptances rules to govern the administration of state banks and trust companies and the scope of clearing house operations by reserve banks.

The governors primarily will consider state bank admissions, a matter which has caused the board some concern.

HEADQUARTERS STATE SOCIETY IS IN NEWARK

Horticulture Extension Directed by F. H. Ballou, From Office in Seventh Street.

The forty-eighth annual meeting of the Ohio State Horticultural Society and the sixth annual Ohio State Apple Show, held in connection with the Ohio Winter Exposition, January 9-15, were unusually interesting, helpful and enjoyable from the horticultural viewpoint. The program of the meetings embraced various subjects pertaining to fruit and vegetabl culture and marketing, the growing and handling of nursery stock and improvement of the country, suburban and city home by the proper use of trees, vines, plants and flowers.

The mission of the Ohio State Horticultural Society—the oldest horticultural organization of state-wide influence in Ohio—is the advancement of the interests of the fruit-grower, gardner and home-owner. This purpose is accomplished, first, by two or more meetings held within the state during each year, at which horticultural addresses and papers are given and discussed; and, second, by printed reports containing the entire proceedings of these valuable meetings. In addition, under its present administration, the society issues a quarterly publication—The Ohio Crop News Bulletin—which reports on orchard, garden and farm conditions throughout the state in April, July, October and January. Moreover the little bulletin contains many valuable, brief articles and notes from members of the organization, thus keeping the membership closely in touch and posted on the general activity in horticultural circles in Ohio.

Within the past six years, under the auspices of the Ohio State Horticultural Society, has been developed the Ohio State Apple Show, which has grown to such proportions that few cities in the state can provide room for its installation. The recent Sixth Annual Apple Show held at Columbus, was a marvel to all who were so fortunate as to visit it. There were shown 1800 trays of apples in many classes and varieties —each tray representing a single layer of a one-bushel box as packed for fancy market. Also there were on exhibition over 100 one-bushel boxes, and about 500 single plates of apples, as well as a number of beautiful booths showing separate, individual exhibits.

Licking county was one of the three Ohio counties most heavily represented at the Sixth Annual Apple Show, and was second in total cash prizes won—Lawrence being first and Washington third. This is a notable victory for Licking county, horticulturally, as our county, while long noted for its widely diversified agricultural products, has never been classed among the counties in which fruit-growing is a specialty.

The officers of the Ohio State Horticultural Society, selected for the year 1915, are: Ernest J. Riggs, Columbus, president; E. A. Flemming, Lowell, vice president; F. H. Ballou, Newark, secretary; V. H. Davis, Columbus, treasurer; N. E. Shaw, Columbus, member-at-large of executive committee. The re-election of president and secretary was by acclamation. Mr. Riggs enters his third year as president of the organization, and F. H. Ballou his eighth year as secretary.

During the past seven years the Ohio State Horticultural Society has grown from 120 to nearly 500 members, and is now one of the strongest and most active and aggressive state horticultural societies not receiving financial aid from the state. For many years the expenses of this organization have been met by the annual membership dues of one dollar per year per member. No official of the organization receives a single penny from this fund as salary or remuneration for services rendered. The membership should be doubled as no fruit-grower nor, home-owner who is really interested in the growing of fruits, vegetables or flowers can afford not to become a member and enjoy and profit by the excellent meetings and the splendid publication issued. Licking county is at this time in possession of the headquarters of the Ohio State Horticultural Society, with the office located at No. 77 Seventh street, Newark, Auto 'phone 1385, and should by location and circumstances, be the first in membership, and first in benefit to b obtained from this nearly half-century-old organization, as compared with other counties of the state. Mr. Ballou, while serving as secretary of the State Horticultural Society, is assistant horticulturist of the Ohio experiment station, in charge of horticultural experiments in the south-eastern district of the state, being employed by the year by the latter-named institution. A part of his time is donated by the experiment station to the care of the state horticultural society's business and editorial affairs. In this dual capacity Mr. Ballou should be and is kept busy at all seasons of the year, and is in close touch with horticultural development of our state. The horticulturists and home-owners of Licking county should make use of this source of assistance located in our midst, which is provided by the state. Information on many lines of horticultural work is cheerfully given and free of cost to all alike. Only those who desire to become members of the Ohio State Horticultural Society, which is a separate and independent organization, are required to pay a fee. And a membership in the state society, with the splendid annual report and quarterly bulletin would be profitable and satisfactory investment at double the regular fee of one dollar per year.

INVESTIGATION IS RIGID BEFORE ANY CHARITY IS GIVEN

When the question of organizing an Associated Charities in Newark was first proposed, there were a few voices of protest raised against the movement. The necessity of such an organization has already been demonstrated, though the actual work of the Associated Charities has been in progress but a short time.

The theory on which the association works, is that no relief or aid should be extended, without a full investigation, to make sure that such aid is needed, and that such aid has not already been extended through some other channel.

Investigations made last week revealed two cases of where the charity of at least two organizations had been abused. In one case investigated, the representatives of the associated charities learned that a load of coal had been sent to a certain address in response to a call for relief.

When the driver of the wagon reached the address, neighbors heard the family direct the driver to "throw the coal in the yard. The coal house is full."

Another case developed where a basket of provisions was delivered to a family by another organization doing charity work. The basket was received at the front door and on the back porch hung three fine dressed chickens.

These are two illustrations of misspent energy. Either one of these families might have been in need at some time during the winter but in both cases the relief was not needed at that particular time. Both cases were revealed by investigations conducted by the associated charities and it is such cases that the association hopes to avoid in its united work.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RESIGNS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Adelaide, Australia, Via Londan, Jan. 19.—Hermann Homburg, attorney general of South Australia since 1909, has resigned his position because of the anti-German feeling existing among the public.

Kill the Dandruff Germ Grow Nice, Thick Hair

Many men and women troubled with itching dandruff—the germ that brings falling hair or baldness, get the mistaken idea that a hair wash or tonic will give them a heavy, long, lustrous growth of hair. 'tis all nonsense. The dandruff germ has his house inside your hair roots and he won't be killed 'till you go under the scalp after him.

Not only should the scalp be kept clean and healthy to promote soft, fluffy hair, but you must feed the little follicles or pores in which the hair is seated, with nourishment that destroys every chance of life for the dandruff germ. Lots of hair lotions merely dissolve the surface scales of dandruff, and the sticky glycerine glues the dissolved pieces tightly to the hair strands, fooling folks into thinking the dandruff's all gone—'til it begins falling over one's clothes a day or so later.

Even the first day's use of "wildroot" will prove its value for the dandruff falls from the head in veritable showers on combing. But quickly after the scales are dropped the scalp again may produce a thick luxuriant growth. Any good, first class druggist sells "wildroot," which is inexpensive, contains only pure vegetable oils and no acids or alkalies. A bottle will last considerable time and the chemists who make it guarantee perfect satisfaction or money back.

Trinity Parish House.
Dr. W. F. Pierce, president of Kenyon College, will speak at the Trinity Episcopalian parish house tonight on the subject: "American Ideals," with particular reference to the war. A dinner, served by the Daughters of Trinity, at 6.30 o'clock, will precede the lecture. The affair is given under the auspices of the Men's Club.

Fractures Arm.
J. Young, residing at Central City, and employed on the pipe line at that place, suffered a fracture of his arm on Monday evening. Mr. Young was on his way home from work and was walking along the railroad track, when he slipped and fell. Dr. C. F. Legge was called and reduced the fracture.

Foxes Almost Extinct.
A red fox was caught in a muskrat trap recently in Seneca county. Some of the old settlers state that it is the first one seen in the county in the last twenty years. There are said to be several red foxes in Licking county. Dr. Earl Russell had a gray fox turned loose which he shipped home from North Carolina, but it is half tame and, as it is dining off chickens near the scene of its freedom, it will have to pay the penalty with its life.

Elk Initiation.
An initiation of candidates will take place at the Elk lodge rooms this evening and will be followed with a social session in the club rooms. Colonel Billy Hohl, assisted by his brother, Johnny, stewards of the club, will have a special "feed" prepared and will endeavor to excel all their former efforts. There promises to be a good time in Elkdom tonight and Exalted Ruler Fletcher S. Scott is desirous that every member in the city who has a good appetite be present.

Maple Avenue Revivals.
The meetings at Maple Avenue Christian Union are growing in interest and power. Evangelist West is dealing in facts not in fancies, and as the people begin to understand that he is not here to "play revival" they are taking more and more interest. Sunday night more than a score of Christians said by the raised hand that they are praying with the pastor for 100 or more converts during the meetings. Deep conviction has settled on the people, and there is no occasion for discouragement or doubt but that the prayers will be answered.

GIVING UP WHOLLY TO GOD'S WILL AND SERVICE

How to Become a True Christian!

Hungry Souls Ask For Bread of Life. Indigestible Stones and Fetid Errors Repel—Only the Bread From Heaven Truly Satisfies—God's True Message Delicious, Satisfying—Error Led to Error In Dark Ages—Discarding Errors, We Return to Simplicity, Truth.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Louisville, Ky. January 17.—Pastor Russell preached here today at Macauley's Theater twice to splendid audiences. We report one of his able discourses from the text, "Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, and your reasonable service."—Romans 12:1.

Speaking with great earnestness, the Pastor declared that he repeatedly meets with people inquiring for the Bread of Life. These seem to know that there is something radically wrong with the preaching of the nominal churches. They tell that they are importuned for money; but that when they ask for soul-food they meet with evasion and subterfuge from many of the great and learned, who appear to have lost sight of the Bible and heart-conversion.

Or, on the other hand, they are met by the Salvation Army, with traditions as indigestible as a stone, to anybody of ordinary intelligence. They are told with all seriousness that God created our race, with knowledge and intention that nearly all of them would spend eternity in torture. They are told that to be saved from that awful fate they should become Salvationists, and storm the slums for Jesus. Their experiences remind one of Jesus' words respecting a father who, asked for bread, would give his son a stone; who, asked for fish, would give him a serpent.

The Pastor hoped that some of these hungry souls were present in his audience. He proposed to give them no human theories or speculations—nor would he compromise the Truth nor dodge the question. He would endeavor to make the way to God so plain that a wayfaring man need not err therein; and he would do this by presenting God's arrangement and quoting God's own Word.

Where Eternal-Torture Error Leads.

No doubt those who invented the theory of eternal torture thought that they were taking the proper steps to drive the whole human family to God. But, on the contrary, it seems to drive away from God and the Bible the most intelligent people of every land, who have naturally a more reasonable and just conception of the Creator than the one presented in the church creeds. Instinctively they are repelled with the thought that the Creator would pursue a course which would be beneath the most degraded.

Undoubtedly the Bible is true in declaring such fallacies "doctrines of demons." (1 Timothy 4:1) From this Bible viewpoint we can see that it was a master stroke on the part of Satan and his subordinates to misrepresent the teachings of the Bible, so as to repel those who might be "feeling after God" and desiring to draw near to Him.—Acts 17:27.

Truth-telling Provokes the Clergy.

To tell the truth to the people, even on so simple a subject, means the angering of the clergy: Why, do you ask? Because it proves them to be in the wrong, and proves that they have not been feeding the people with the Bread of Heaven. Instead of building up the House of God, the Church, they have been building meeting-houses—seeking for numbers and popularity rather than to instruct the people in God's Word. Remarkably few church members of any denomination know what they believe. They give evidence that, if Christians at all, they are the merest babes in Christ. None is able to judge another's heart, but all should be able to judge of each other's lives—fruits. "By their fruits ye shall know them," said the Master.—Matthew 7:20.

If the majority of Christians have the fruits of the Holy Spirit, they keep them hidden; and surely many of them manifest the fruits of the Evil Spirit—"anger, malice, hatred, envy, strife, bitterness, slander," etc.—which the Apostles style works of the flesh and of the Devil.—Ephesians 4:31; Galatians 5:19-21; 1 John 3:8.

We would not be misunderstood; we are not complaining that there are not nice people connected with all the churches. On the contrary, we compliment them on their education, their refinement, their wealth, their influence. Moreover, we compliment them on their humanitarian sympathies, as represented in hospitals, asylums and other benevolences. But all these things are shared evenly by people who are not members of churches. A participation in good works is by no means a proof that one is a Christian. A Christian is a person who has come into a very special relationship to God through Christ; and this relationship exists not in respect to education, wealth, color or sex.

With the popularizing of Christianity came such a modification of teachings as invited all decent worldly people into the Church, and made them think that they were consecrated saints of God and heirs of the blessings promised in the Scriptures. By inference, rather than by direct statement, the theory has gone forth that the penalty for sin will be visited only upon those who neglect to say, "God forgive me," a few moments before they die. Notwithstanding the plain statements of the creeds, every funeral discourse lands the dead in Heaven, so far as the auditors can understand. A misinterpretation of the Savior's words to the dying thief is made the basis for this absurdity.

Let me say, then, with all kindness toward those who are deceiving themselves and others that the vast majority of church members and of preachers are not Christians at all, according to the Bible standards. This does not mean that the Bible condemns them to eternal torment. Thank God, no! It does mean, however, that these self-deceived ones will have neither part nor lot in the wonderful blessing provided for God's elect Church. It means, further, that God's Church is separate from all human institutions; and that only saintly persons, regardless of denominational lines, are members of the true Church, "whose names are written in Heaven."

Surrender Self—Sacrifice to God.

According to the Bible, no human being is fit for Divine fellowship or eternal life. The reason is given that all are sinners. The explanation of the sin is that it was committed by Father Adam when he was perfect, in God's image; and that, cut off from God, the race deteriorated, passing imperfections of mind, morals and body from parent to child (Psalm 51:5). Imperfect beings would be quite out of place amongst the perfect; and so long as imperfection continues, sin will continue, and with it necessarily, sorrow, pain and death, its consequences.

God declares his sympathy for the sinner, and that He has made provision for man's recovery from his present deplorable state. Not only so, but a time has been set for the recovery; and the Bible tells us how it will be accomplished—by Messiah and His Millennial Kingdom. We pray, "Thy Kingdom come," with the thought that God will fulfil His promise to establish that Kingdom, but by way of giving acknowledgment to the fact that that Kingdom is the hope of the world and of the Church.

The Church's hope in the Kingdom is that of becoming sharers with Christ in the glory, honor and work of that Kingdom—for the blessing and uplift ing of humanity out of sin and death. There is no attempt being made at the present time on God's part to convert the world. Few now hear the Gospel Message, and fewer believe it. They are deluded by the Adversary into thinking that God has been trying to convert the world for six thousand years and has been making a miserable failure of it all along, and that whatever is done, we must do for ourselves. Thus has unbelief been cultivated, and trust in God and in the teachings of the Bible thrust aside.

Nevertheless, the Lord declares, "My Word that has gone forth out of My mouth shall not return unto Me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." (Isaiah 55.11.) God's Word was sent forth to invite a very special class of humanity—a class loving righteousness and hating iniquity, weary and heavy-laden with sin, ignorance and superstition, and desirous of coming back into harmony with God and being blessed of Him.

For nearly nineteen centuries the Message has been going hither and thither, quietly, unostentatiously. The world and the nominal churches would say that it had accomplished nothing—that everything great had been accomplished by them. But we prefer to stand by the Bible and to recognize that God's consecrated ones have indeed lifted up a light which the world has hated—a light on account of which they have frequently been put to death, or have had "their names cast out as evil," or have been boycotted, socially or otherwise.

If their hopes were merely in the present life, these would be making a miserable failure of their opportunities. But not so; they are waiting for their reward in the future—at the Second Coming of Jesus—by a share in the First Resurrection. And even now their joy, peace and fellowship with God more than offset all their trials, difficulties and ostracism. Besides, "To them it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God," which to all others are parables and dark sayings, hard to be understood.

Shepherd's Voice. "Come Unto Me."

The trials and difficulties of life pressing many today are giving them a hearing ear for the Great Shepherd's words, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." He does not say, "Go to the Lutheran Church; go to the Presbyterian Church; go to the Methodist Church; go to the Roman Catholic Church"; or "Go to any other Church"; He says, "Come unto Me."

It is the privilege of whoever hears this Message to go immediately to the Lord, direct. True, he cannot go to the Heavenly Father direct; for as we read, "God heareth not sinners." But he can go to Jesus, because Him hath God set forth to be our Savior, our Redeemer. Thus Jesus said, "No man cometh unto the Father but by Me" (John 14:6). He did not say, "No man can come unto Me except through a preacher, or a priest, or a bishop, or a pope." He made the way simple for whosoever desires to come.

But when we desire to come to the Father, and learn that we must come through Jesus, what shall we say to Him? We have only one alternative; namely, to ask Him upon what terms He will introduce us to the Heavenly Father, and thus bring us back from the condition of condemnation into the family of God. When we suggest that Jesus would raise conditions, the proposition seems astounding to some. They have somehow gotten the impression that the Heavenly Father and Jesus are in great distress because so few people desire to become members of the Church; and that they would be ready to receive anything and anybody on any terms, simply to have another name added. How absurd this is, when we come to think of it!

We call to mind the teaching of the Master. He did not say, "So many of you as wish to hit the sawdust trail can go to Heaven!" He did not say, "Seek to excite the people and get them to do something that they would not afterward fully understand and appreciate." He did the reverse; He said, "Sit down first and count the cost," before complying with the terms of discipleship. And so He still says to all who come to Him, "Sit down and count the cost." Do nothing rashly.

Some of us can count more rapidly than others. Many of the poor ones who are weary and heavy-laden through sin are ready to say, "I know the cost of sin in my personal experiences. The cost of being disciples of Jesus cannot be greater than the cost of being rebels against the Divine Law." Such are frequently ready to decide quickly and take their stand firmly on the Lord's side. Others are like the rich young man who came to Jesus, saying, "What good thing can I do that I may inherit eternal life? I have kept the Law from my youth up. What lack I yet?"—Matthew 19.16-20.

There are few today like that young man, of whom we read, "Jesus, beholding him, loved him." And we may be sure that Jesus still loves those who are striving hard to live right, righteous lives. But this class has the harder struggle. They think they have done everything that they ought to do, or at least everything that the Lord would have them do. But Jesus says, No. To that young man He said, "Go sell what you have, and give to the poor; and come, take up your cross and follow Me." Again He said, "If any man will be My disciple, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me, and where I am, there shall My disciple be."

To be a disciple of Christ is to be a follower, a pupil—one who walks as He walked. The proposition is self-denial, self-effacement. It means giving one's self wholly to God, as in our text, "Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, your reasonable service." No one need go far to make this consecration. Each, at his own bedside, can give his little all to God, through Christ.

How to Become a Christian.

It should not require long to count how much more we shall receive than we give. We give a condemned and dying existence; we give mental, moral and physical imperfections—we have no more except as our Savior, by imputing His merit, makes our sacrifice of value in God's sight. But in exchange we receive riches of grace in the present life—peace, joy, blessing of heart, which the world can neither give nor take away—and in the life to come, "glory, honor, and immortality," joint-heirship with our Savior in the Heavenly Kingdom which shall dominate the world for the thousand years, for its blessing and uplift.

Really, after counting the cost, there is a danger that we would feel so ashamed of the littleness of our offering that we would fear to come to the Lord with it. We gain courage to present our bodies only by a knowledge of the Lord's Word, and a realization of the mercy and favor which has prompted His kind invitation for an exchange of something of little value for great things of inestimable value. But unless we take this very step, and definitely and positively enter into a contract with the Lord, we have neither part nor lot with Him. We are still of the world, however much we may try to pattern our lives after decent models and to avoid the grosser and the finer sins. The covenant with the Lord is the beginning, and to each covenanter comes "grace to help in every time of need"; as Jesus said, "Without Me ye can do nothing."

But, says one. Surely this is not the only way of coming into God's family! Yea, we answer, it is the only way. "There is none other Name given under Heaven or amongst men whereby we must be saved" from our condition of condemnation, and be brought back into the family of God. Jesus Himself makes the distinctive terms that we must become His full disciples in order to have this blessed privilege of discipleship.

Have you ever heard the limitations and obligations of the Christian so Scripturally defined before? Have not the facts been hidden from you by the clergy? Have they not rather sought to set aside the words of Jesus because they conflict with their theories? Is not this really why so many have been unable to find the satisfying "meat in due season" in the nominal churches? We believe it is; and we urge all—ministers, everybody—to return to the Bible simplicity of a fully consecrated Church of Christ, His elect Bride class, and then a restitutionary blessing for mankind through Christ's Millennial Kingdom.

The blessing upon the world will be earthly restitution to human nature, instead of a change to the Divine nature, as promised to the Church. All who refuse both the Call of the present time and the opportunity of the future Restitution will die the Second Death, which St. Peter describes as like that of the natural brute beast.—Acts 3:19-23; 2 Peter 2:12

REPRESENTED BY HER PRESIDENT AT ORGANIZATION OF COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

One Hundred and Sixty-six Institutions Sent Delegates to Chicago—Granville News.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, O., Jan. 19.—President Chamberlain represented Denison at the organization of the Association of American Colleges, held in Chicago, January 14, 15 and 16. One hundred and sixty-six colleges on private foundation were represented at the meeting in Chicago. The Bureau of Education of the United States Government was represented by Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, and Dr. S. C. Capen, an expert in the Bureau of Education. Both of these men addressed the Association on the co-operation of American colleges for the promotion of higher education. About thirty addresses were given at the meeting. Among the speakers were Henry Churchill King of Oberlin, Chancellor McCormick of the University of Pittsburg, President Harris of Northwestern, Elmer Ellsworth Brown of New York University, and President Sanford of Clark University. On Friday evening, the presidents of the Baptist colleges of the United States met for dinner together. Five Denison men were in this group. Dr. Padelford, secretary of the Education Board of the Northern Baptist Convention, and Ernest D. Burton, an alumnus of Denison, president of the Education Board, were invited as guests.

The regular meeting of the Travelers club yesterday afternoon was attended by almost the entire membership, with several guests added, who enjoyed an afternoon of rare profit and entertainment. The president, Mrs. W. E. Clemons, occupied the chair and announced the changes in the regular program. "Current events," as presented by Miss Jennie Roe, proved to be of more than usual interest. "Forest Wealth" by Mrs. Jasper Jones, was on a high plane of literary as well as economic merit, and commanded close attention. The "Parliamentary Drill" by Mrs. Lucy Van Kirk, was entered into with enthusiasm by all present and contributed in large measure to the pleasure and benefit of the session.

Officers and teachers of the Baptist Sunday school numbering about forty, sat down to a beautifully served supper in the church parlors at 5:30 o'clock last evening. Following the repast there was an animated business meeting, in which many took part. As organized, there are four departments, with their own officers: General superintendent, Mr. E. E. Hopkins; superintendent of the college department, Dr. W. A. Chamberlain; of the Intermediate department, Prof. Theodore Johnson; of the Infant department, Mrs. Robert Beggs.

Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Colwell have gone to Columbus for a day or two where Dr. Colwell will attend an important board meeting. From Columbus Mrs. Colwell expects to go to Bowling Green for a visit with Mrs. Clyde Newton, formerly Miss Elizabeth Benedict of Denison Conservatory.

The Denison Conservatory Music course for 1915 is announced as follows: February 9, The American String Quartette of Boston; March 12, Mrs. Edward McDowell, wife of the famous composer, in a lecture and piano recital; April 21, Comic opera, Victor Herbert's "Red Mill," or — a Gilbert and Sullivan opera presented under the same auspices as the "Mikado" last year; May 19-20, the annual festival of four concerts: (1) Afternoon Concert of Denison Orchestra, augmented to a forty-five piece orchestra; (2) Evening Concert, Rossini's "Stabet Mater," University Chorus of 200; Denison Orchestra of 40, and soloists; (3) Afternoon Concert given by visiting Symphony orchestra, provided 600 seats are subscribed. (4) Final Concert, St. Saens, grand opera, "Samson and Delilah," given in concert form.

The committee presents this ambitious program and asks for the co-operation and support of all townspeople and students. Subscription sheets will be in the hands of solicitors within the next few days and should meet with a hearty response—especially since there has been no college lecture course this winter.

Conservatory registration for next semester begins today in the conservatory building, hours being 9 to 11:30 a. m.; 1:30 to 3 p. m. each day. To secure the best hours for private instruction it is best to register early.

The rehearsals of the Engwerson Chorus will be resumed tonight. Bassos and tenors will meet for preliminary rehearsal at 6:30 Y. M. C. A. and the entire chorus will rehearse at 7 p. m. in Recital Hall. New members may join at any time as work upon the new music has just begun. The value of choral singing as preparation for Glee club or solo work is inestimable.

At the annual meeting of the Denison University Athletic Association, Mr. W. C. Woodard of the present junior class, was unanimously elected president of the association for the ensuing year, with Mr. H. A. Brock of the sophomore class as vice president, and Mr. C. C. Sherbourne of the same class as secretary. Messrs. Ladd and Stankard were elected to the positions of student members of the board of control.

There will be a regular meeting of the Granville Woman's Music club Wednesday afternoon, January 20 at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Howard Dorr.

Miss Shirley Slack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Slack, returned this afternoon from a visit with Miss Betty Jones in Plymouth, O.

Mrs. Ralph B. Laurence of Madison, Wis., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Kull. Professor Kull, who has been confined to his room with illness for the past fortnight is slowly improving.

Mrs. F. G. Duke of Richmond, Va., is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Lewis in Shepardson Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Guckert, with their little daughter, Frances, left yesterday for a three months' tour of the Pacific coast, going first to New Orleans, thence over the Southern Pacific for Georgetown, Texas, for a short visit with Mrs. Guckert's father, Mr. Charles Belford. Their itinerary includes all points of interest in California.

A slight error appeared in the report of the Presbyterian Woman's Missionary society, Saturday. It should have been "Mrs. William Howe was elected first vice president for the coming year," instead of Mrs. William Hair.

DELAWARE HOLDING BEAL LAW ELECTION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Delaware, O., Jan. 19.—A Beal law election to determine whether this college city shall return to the open saloon was being held here today. Despite a snowstorm, a heavy vote was polled early. The city voted against saloons six years ago, the dry majority at that time being 629.

Mount Gilead, Morrow county, voted dry yesterday by a majority of 262 votes, the wets polling only 89 votes.

SAMARITAN AND BRIGHTS DISEASE

James Craig is a prosperous merchant of Silverton, Oregon. He has time to think of the health and happiness of those about him.

A young lady school teacher, the daughter of a friend, was succumbing to Bright's Disease. Craig wrote to the late N. W. Spaulding, then United States Sub-treasurer of San Francisco, to ask if there was any truth in the report that Bright's Disease was being cured in California. Spalding replied that after he had spent $10,000 with physicians, his own daughter had recovered, and that too after the dropsy had developed and the case was supposed to be hopeless.

Craig advised the father and Fulton's Renal Compound was taken to the patient. She recovered and was teaching school at last advices. Craig was delighted and told others. He has sent us the names of nearly a dozen helped to new leases of life.

The ability of Fulton's Diabetic Compound to oppose Hepatic degeneration and reduce sugar in many cases of Diabetes in people aged fifty and upwards is not a matter of opinion but FACT IN PHYSICS and we will send formula that will show the percentage of sugar from week to week. As the sugar disappears improved health and comfort commonly follows, reports having been reported in many cases. Formula and literature mailed on request. John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco. P. O. Box Hall is the agent. Ask for pamphlet.

POOL TOURNAMENT.

Hill and Wheeler were victors in both games of the pool contest Monday night at the Barnes pool room, defeating Phillips and Green 100 to 84. In the billiard contest, Hill and Wheeler won two contests in three. They have now won four games to their opponents one. The next game will be played at the Wooles pool room Dednesday at 8 o'clock.

REFORMS

DEMANDED BY DRY INTERESTS WOULD BE EFFECTED BY KRAMER'S BILL

Which Minority Floor Leader Has Prepared for Introduction—Legislative Program for Today.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—With additional committee appointments ready for announcement by Speaker Conover, and the rules committee about to make its report, the house was prepared to get down to business this afternoon. Nothing was on the senate calendar but perfunctory second-reading of the eighteen bills introduced yesterday.

Representative Kramer of Richland county, minority floor leader, had prepared a bill for introduction "to provide an honest election on questions submitted by a referendum vote." It would effect the reforms demanded by dry interests following the recent demand for a recount of ballots on the home rule amendment in the four most populous counties in the state, and the supreme court's refusal to mandamus Secretary of State Graves to order a recount. The machinery provided by the Kramer bill for a recount and contests on referendum questions, is similar to that already established for contesting candidate's election.

Representative Hoy of Jackson, has a civil service bill ready for presentation in the house similar to that introduced in the senate yesterday by Senator Moore to eliminate the non-competitive examination feature of the present law, remove certain positions from civil service regulations, and reduce the state and municipal commissions to two members.

Two bills, amending the nominating by petition law, to eliminate the expensive system of circulating petitions before a primary, were about to be thrown into the house-hopper. Representative Kramer's bill would provide that a person could become a candidate for nomination merely by filing a declaration of his intention before the primary. The measure prepared by Representative Morris of Fairfield, would compel a candidate for nomination to secure only a nominal number of names on a petition, and to pay a fee of 1 per cent of the first year's salary for the office he seeks. Five to twenty-five names would have to be secured on petitions for local offices, and twenty-five to fifty for the state offices.

A GREAT MUSICIAN'S HAIR SECRET

It was a man musician to whom we were talking but every woman will realize the value of his answer to our question, "What makes your hair so abundant and so lustrous?" "Just simple care, madam. I am as good to it as I am to my hands." It was just his way of saying, "I keep it perfectly clean. Since then we have found that regular care and perfect cleanliness means hair health and beauty. It is not advisable when shampooing to use a makeshift, but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of cantirox from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

ENGLAND HAS REFUSED HER SAFE CONDUCT

TO STEAMER RECENTLY TRANSFERRED FROM GERMAN TO AMERICAN REGISTRY.

Loaded With a Cargo of Cotton Destined to Neutral Port of Rotterdam.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Jan. 19.—The British government will not consent to allow the steamer Dacia, recently transferred from German to American registry to proceed to Rotterdam under safe conduct with her cargo of cotton, the state department was notified today from London.

The British reply to suggestions for a safe conduct, recently made by the state department, came through the American embassy at London. While the text of the message was withheld, it is known the British objection was based broadly on a reluctance to create a precedent which, it is felt, would be followed by many similar purchases of German ships in America and efforts to operate them on the former German trade routes.

The British note does not undertake to assert the right of Great Britain to interfere with ships purchased and transferred to the American flag in a legitimate way. The objection to the transfer of the Dacia, according to the British view, is that it was not genuine, it being intimated the British government believes the American purchaser really was acting for German principals.

Motor Fire Trucks Are Best For All Kinds of Weather, Says Fire Prevention Expert

"Newark need have no fear that motor fire trucks will be less dependable than horse-drawn apparatus," said H. H. Howland, engineer for the fire prevention committee of the National Board of Underwriters, in an interview here.

"The experience in other cities has been that the motor-driven trucks will go any place that horses are able to go. Not only that, but they get there quicker and are in better condition to repeat a run than horses under the same conditions.

"Weather conditons do not interfere materially with the efficiency of motor fire apparatus. This is illustrated by the fact that Calgary, Canada, where there is snow nearly half the year, has motorized its entire department. They experience no more difficulty with the motors than they did with the horses.

"Newark by all means should install two motor trucks at headquarters. Both fire-fighting units there are antiquated and should have been replaced sometime ago. The hose reel is the only one of that type I have seen in my travels over the country. This type of vehicle was replaced fifteen years ago in nearly every department in the country.

"With modern equipment at headquarters, an adequate building and electrical code to govern the construction work being done in the city, and certain changes in the water system, Newark would rank among the best cities of its size in the country in the matter of fire protection."

DENISON STUDENT RETURNS FROM VISIT TO FOREIGN LAND

Philip Bickel, a Denison student two years ago, returned to that institution today after spending two years abroad, most of which time has been spent in Kobe, Japan, where his father has been engaged in the tea trade. The young man joined the British marine service last summer and enjoyed a cruise to many foreign ports. He arrived in New York in December and resigned from the service and after spending some time in that city and Boston, his former home, decided to return to old Denison, where he expects to complete his course in English literature, after which he will return to Tokio, Japan, where he expects to engage in newspaper work.

Mr. Bickel has had a number of novel and interesting experiences since leaving Denison two years ago. In Kobe he joined an exploration party and for several days was lost with a companion, in the wilds of a Japanese island. At another time he was in danger of his life in a grotto when confronted with a ferocious animal after his automatic gun refused to work. Mr. Bickel dispatched the animal with a revolver and a hunting knife. The party also discovered a tribe of semi-wild men who had been inhabiting one of the numerous islands of the Japanese possessions and who had never before seen a white man. They offered him twenty young girls in marriage in exchange for his gold watch. Mr. Bickel will return to Japan next summer.
